1	the ones checked on the left act as a preventative for summer schooling and attract ppl to the district	Mar 15, 2012 9:47 AM
2	Class sizes are a BIG concern for me. We are under-utilizing our Teachers for ANY class that has less-than 20 students. Also, I have personally seen the BAND and SPORTS transform students into well-rounded individuals that make me proud to be a parent in the Kingston School District! We cannot lose EITHER of these - at any cost.	Mar 15, 2012 6:06 AM
3	I see a lot of wasted funds in these areas.	Mar 15, 2012 5:28 AM
4	It has been proven through research that involvement in classroom and instrumental music lessons on a regular basis increases students' likelihood of success in academic subjects and standardized tests. It is research that has been proven to be true and cannot be questioned. Music educators have begun to discover connections, already inherent in their lesson plans, between music and the common core curriculum. Music along with all of the Arts play a vital role in helping students achieve their academic success. Because of these facts, music and the arts programs should be maintained in school budgets at all costs. I would also like to praise the outstanding music department in the Kingston School District for the wonderful education in music that they offer my children both in classroom and instrumental music. Their teaching is comprehensive and the opportunities they offer my children for growth as musicians are tremendous. BRAVO!	Mar 14, 2012 8:28 PM
5	small class size is essential	Mar 14, 2012 6:39 PM
6	Technology should be monitored so that we can provide technology resources in places where it is desired. We should let go of hardware in places where it goes unused and provide the resources to other teachers who would love to have the opportunity to use technology but have little or nothing. Why are we wasting resources with teachers who feel they either cannot or do not have the time or expertise to use this medium? Why are we stifling our techno-savvy teachers by not supporting them in their use of new innovative technology? Our students deserve to be in on the cutting edge, if there is an opportunity to do so.	Mar 14, 2012 4:04 PM
7	I believe that band/orchestra is very important because lots of students from grades 4-12 who enjoy classical and just love the feel of music would love to keep it in the district since, like any club, gives the students a fun activity to do and learn from.	Mar 14, 2012 3:44 PM
8	WE HAVE TO KEEP OUR SCHOOL BAND They show our school is not all bad like people think they bring joy to our school Kingston high they're music helps me and others work much better please don't get rid of the band they are essential to our school	Mar 14, 2012 3:13 PM
9	I am very much against removing music from the budget. I am a band student, and it is the only class I like and the only subject I consider a future career in. If there were no more band, I would probably want to stay home from school every day and I would be miserable. Before high school band, I had very few friends and social anxiety. Now I have friends and my anxiety is gone. I couldn't imagine my life without music.	Mar 14, 2012 2:56 PM

11	Technology in classrooms should be updated and teachers educated a great deal more about the student with learning disabilities. Currently teachers lack the knowledge to effectively deal with students who have learning disabilities. Why are they educating students that they do know possess the knowledge to educate?	Mar 14, 2012 12:06 PM
12	Music and Art art critical components of an elementary education. The arts support and round out a core academic curriculum that has grown sadly narrow over the last decade.	Mar 14, 2012 12:00 PM

16	quality music department at high school. Don't think about changing it	Mar 14, 2012 6:10 AM
17	Kingston has a rare & outstanding music program. When we moved here 6 years ago, the music program played a significant role in drawing us to Kingston rather than New Paltz.	Mar 14, 2012 5:55 AM
18	My daughter is very involved in the KHS band.. and we cannot say enough about the impact it has had on her HS experience..We had 2 older children graduate from KHS and they were not involved with any music programs. The difference in their High School experience is astounding.. The statistics are out there that children involved with music perform better in all aspects of their lives. It provides a niche for many students who other wise would be swallowed up by a large school.. as it was told to me .. students need to find their niche at KHS to do well.. and all the arts , music , theater and sports programs provide that .. It keeps kids off of Broadway and on the road to success.. Thank you..	Mar 14, 2012 5:39 AM
19	It is possible the categories above require a broader description in order to make a more focused opinion	Mar 14, 2012 3:13 AM
20	Keeping things like Music and sports in at the elementary level is CRUCIAL, because without feeder schools, these areas WILL suffer tremendously on the middle and high school levels.	Mar 13, 2012 9:26 PM
21	I believe sports and music are an integral part of learning, because you need to have things to keep the kids interested while also teaching them the necessities. These programs are also what children use to assist in getting to college to further their learning.	Mar 13, 2012 7:47 PM

24	The music program is absolutely essential to the district.	Mar 13, 2012 7:14 PM

Q1. Please read each area on the left and select the description from the row above that best defines, for you, how important the area is for the schools and community.

25	Music is essential. All of the best kids in school are in the music departments.	Mar 13, 2012 6:45 PM
26	Higher level classes (AP) should be preserved at all costs!	Mar 13, 2012 6:33 PM
27	the categories listed are extremely limited. How about preserving neighborhood elementary schools....that is extremely important. Why is the district continuing to persue a model of reducing elementary schools without looking to cut costs elsewhere. You have chosen to cut one elementary school, now move to another area to cut. Please excuse any typos....this survey was done on a mobile device.	Mar 13, 2012 6:29 PM
28	You need to be more specific with "technology"	Mar 13, 2012 6:28 PM
29	There should MOST DEFINATELY be more of a priority for academic caegories, such as AP classes, art, and music. Studies have shown that children who participate in art and music do much better than those who don't. Kids are going to school to learn- NOT to participate in clubs and do sports. School is for learning NOT for having fun and socializing.	Mar 13, 2012 6:27 PM
30	Can we also bring into question the number of administrators we have in the district? Between the cadre of assistant pricipals at KHS to the many people employed at Crown St., can we cut there rather than taking away programs that directly benefit students?	Mar 13, 2012 6:17 PM
31	I vote for preservation of the arts.They provide students with a means for self expression and contribute to the academics in enriching what is learned in academic subjects through art as a mirror of history and literature. Having participation in music programs has been proven to produce more successful students . Through involvement in these programs the students learn time management and organization, and develop self esteem . They learn to work together for a common goal . Many of these skills can carry on to help students be more "college ready". I also feel that we need to cater more to the mid -range and higher level students to provide them with adequate academic challenges and stimulation. We need to make some of our less achieving students more accountable for their work to better prepare them for the outside world.	Mar 13, 2012 6:17 PM
32	Proposed elementary schools closures are not an acceptable solution; it clashes with the very exact mission of the District - "The students is our most valuable asset", the student right to a quality education will be eliminated.	Mar 13, 2012 5:47 PM
33	I believe night school and summer school are positive in tying to ensure higher passing rates, however I believe the execution should be evaluated.	Mar 13, 2012 5:46 PM
34	Alternative programs such as Montessori Elementary schools are much needed to provide quality education and to keep our district competitive with others. It is a wonderful program and honestly makes our district look good from outside observers.	Mar 13, 2012 5:44 PM
35	Music and Art classes are essential to the enjoyment and willingness of students to go to school each day. Cutting these classes is one of the biggest mistakes this district can make.	Mar 13, 2012 4:40 PM

38	Utilize BOCES and/or consolidate summer school etc with other districts if necessary. The ARTs are essential through out the school years!!!	Mar 13, 2012 3:52 PM
39	Small class sizes at the elementary level can help avoid things like alt Ed and night school later on,	Mar 13, 2012 3:42 PM
40	I think it is most important to prioritize programs that will have a positive lifelong effect on our students, and making sure everyone graduates from our school system after 4 years of high school prepared for college or career. I really think that what distinguishes great students from good students is a high level of creativity and critical thinking.	Mar 13, 2012 3:16 PM
41	It would be wonderful to keep everything, but something has to give, we all need to use good judgement and decided what it the least important for the education of all children.	Mar 13, 2012 3:13 PM
42	Music should stay in the program. It's a passion kids have grown to have	Mar 13, 2012 2:57 PM
43	It is essential to educate the entire child and not just in academic areas. we must provide the 'extras' in order to have a truly educated population.	Mar 13, 2012 2:12 PM

48	i believe that music is the most important.	Mar 13, 2012 1:12 PM
49	School is about much more than just reading, writing and arithmetic. The focus areas areas being pursued at the high school show that core subjects can be taught in many different ways and students learn in different ways. Students need music, sports, clubs, etc. to make school fun, help develop socially, emotionally and grow into a complete, well-rounded person.	Mar 13, 2012 1:02 PM
50	band is amazing	Mar 13, 2012 11:51 AM
51	Music and art are essential to the school district. Without them the students would have nothing to look forward to during their day.	Mar 13, 2012 11:50 AM
52	A well rounded education includes music, art, and athletics. To give these up is to under-educate our most precious asset (our children)!	Mar 13, 2012 11:13 AM

Q1. Please read each area on the left and select the description from the row above that best defines, for you, how important the area is for the schools and community.

53	I have 3 US and international studies which show the optimum class size is 27-29, and class sizes at 22-26 are actually detrimental.	Mar 13, 2012 10:51 AM
54	A well rounded, diverse education benefits all. Each one of these classes/programs addresses alternatives to traditional education. We all possess a unique learning style; these programs and classes address individual learning styles	Mar 13, 2012 10:33 AM
55	Music and the arts are an essential tool for all children	Mar 13, 2012 10:27 AM
56	Music is the best!! I have the best music teachers ever.	Mar 13, 2012 10:14 AM
57	I am a supporter of music/band, but the size is shrinking in middle school (due to the new 'pull out of class for lessons' rule, and that's a shame. These teachers have very small classes and we should consider combining them.	Mar 13, 2012 10:13 AM
58	I would include Choir and/or Chorus as well, at all levels	Mar 13, 2012 10:13 AM
59	Music is the one universal area that children of all backgrounds can join and thrive in. The high school band is a great example. They are wonderfully successful and these kids are going places. Of course the Freeman only chooses to write about the problems. Never any mention of the these motivated kids unless it's in the back of the paper.	Mar 13, 2012 10:11 AM
60	I feel that if we did not have the Montessori program we may be able to have smaller class sizes. Not only is it expensive to run, but there are a large number of children on special Supt. permission as a result. Perhaps if we did not have the Montessori program located in one of our largest schools, then perhaps we would not need to redistrict some of our children out of our home schools. Though I agree to closing schools to save money, I strongly believe that forcing them into large classes is hindering the quality education we have come to know. The teachers are unable to provide the same level of instruction as they have in the past due to increased class size and this will only get worse as the class sizes are increased further. It would be one thing if the test scores from the Montessori program warranted continuing the program, but from what I have seen I don't believe they do!	Mar 13, 2012 9:38 AM
61	parents should pay for extra's-including summer/night school	Mar 13, 2012 9:35 AM
62	no	Mar 13, 2012 9:12 AM
63	I don't see the need at all for night school and haven't since I moved to Kingston 7 years ago. I own a home here and have children in both the high school and elementary school. I went to a much smaller district growing up and had never heard of night school until I came here. I don't see the need for it. Music and Band on the other hand enrich our children! My older son is in the marching band and it's a part of who he is. It helped him enter the high school comfortably. He's an amazing student and he's grouned because of it. Please don't get rid of music or band!!!	Mar 13, 2012 9:09 AM
64	I believe our children are most benefited by the alternative programming. I would like to see the Montessori program made available to all of students and I	Mar 13, 2012 9:00 AM commend the city of Kingston for being innovative and taking the initiative to change a system that obviously needs a program that helps the student develop character and strong academics. Bravo!

65	All important categories, but tough times call for tough measures and some of these programs will need to be cut. Everyone is cutting back and the school system needs to as well.	Mar 13, 2012 8:57 AM
66	alternative ed. not all kids learn the same and not all kids are going to go to college. Trade schools should be made not to sound as a lesser choice than "college"	Mar 13, 2012 8:55 AM
67	music should remain an essential part of our school curriculum. Our son graduated first in his class at Miller MS and at Robert Graves Elementary School. Music has had a very positive impact on his overall academic success!	Mar 13, 2012 8:47 AM
68	There should be a "Don't know enough about this program" option above	Mar 13, 2012 8:47 AM

74	Preserving the Alternative Education Montessori Program at GW is extremely important to me. I've been a parent with two child at the school for 4 years and it's an essential reason why I continue to live in the district.	Mar 13, 2012 7:51 AM
75	Each of these categories need to operate within the Tax Cap budget.	Mar 13, 2012 7:40 AM
76	In light of rumors regarding the elimination of Music programs, I feel it is very important to say that I feel eliminating music and arts in the public schools would be a great disservice to the students, their families, their future, and the community as a whole. Music programs develop self-disciplinary skills, commitment, and have been shown to increase the GPA of those students who play an instrument. Enrichment in the arts is especially important to the upstate region in NY as our county is especially valued in this domain. We have a unique and vital history involving the arts and music that should continue to be supported and expanded. Students have always to continued to achieve and exceed academic expectations when involved in extracurricular activities such as strings, chorus, and band.	Mar 13, 2012 7:39 AM

Q1. Please read each area on the left and select the description from the row above that best defines, for you, how important the area is for the schools and community.

78	Alternative Education, Summer School, and Night School are essential in preserving the educational opporutnities for our most at risk students. AP classes and the arts are essential for all students. Technology is not as important as skilled teachers.	Mar 13, 2012 7:27 AM
79	Art and music are very important for kids to have an outlet to express themselves.	Mar 13, 2012 7:25 AM
80	Alternative Education site is critical. MOST district students are 'good' and 'normal' kids. THEY deserve the best education without being hindered by the minority of students who will not comply with the rules/culture, etc of public education. Yes, they all have a 'right' to an education, like I do to a driver's licence. But I can lose my right if I don't comply with the laws. Students - regardless of if they are emotionally disturbed, LD or whatever should lose the right to attend their typical public school if they are a problem. They need to be moved to an alternate location with alternate programs. The 'right' to our district's amazing schools should be reserved for the students who doing the right thing and taking advantage of what our schools have to offer - to the ones 'taking advantage' of our lack of discipline, enforcement of policies, or consistency.	Mar 13, 2012 7:21 AM
81	I think you will see that children involved in sports, arts, and music have the highest graduation rate, and are therefore worth keeping	Mar 13, 2012 7:20 AM
82	Despite the fact that many studies show that a student's participation in the arts is connected to overal scholastic achievement public schools have decreased these programs. I hope that Kingston schools will not only maintain their comittment to the arts but furtherestablish ties with say math and music, science and art.	Mar 13, 2012 7:18 AM
83	These topics are all critical to maintain successful students as they continue on to a college education or trade.	Mar 13, 2012 7:16 AM
84	Small class sizes are imperative as todays children come unprepared to learn. Many have had little to no experiences that would introduce them to a learning invironment. IBM left the area years ago and caused a brain drain. We have many top students but many more below grade level who are unmotivated . A teacher is not a miracle worker . Teachers wear many hats in the classroom and teaching in this system is difficult given the present culture.	Mar 13, 2012 7:15 AM
85	It is extremely important that we maintain/improve our AP classes in order to keep our school system competitive.	Mar 13, 2012 7:05 AM
86	What about teachers' salaries, raises?	Mar 13, 2012 7:04 AM
87	Music and Art are very important in creating a well rounded child. It is a proven fact that learning to play an instrument can also help improve the learning ability of a child who struggles academically. It also improves the self esteem of children and has nothing but positive results. Our music program has given students wonderful oppourtunities and learning about hard work to achieve a goal. These students would not have had those oppourtunities if it were not for our music program and this could negatively affect them. As a homeowner, I would gladly pay a little more in taxes if it gave programs like these to our talented	Mar 13, 2012 7:03 AM

89	Although I believe that music and art are essential for a students to explore and enhance their perspective, I am firmly against pulling them out of classrooms at the elementray level. The loss of classroom time and momentum are a disruption that does not work.	Mar 13, 2012 6:26 AM

95	You need a box to save the KHS Choir!	Mar 13, 2012 4:28 AM
96	The music program at the high school was the only thing that made me want to wake up in the morning and go to school. If you cut that program, I fear that a lot of your current and future students who are interested in music or art may not feel that same motivation, will not feel the need for good attendance, and will not be nearly as proud to say that they attended Kingston High School as I am today.	Mar 13, 2012 3:45 AM
97	Music and art need to be saved. They are rapidly dying and if we cut any art or music programs the students will die with it. As a student involved with the choir and voice program If I didn't have these programs I would have never found myself and what I really wantto be. Music changed my entire life, I was ping down a road that wasn't a very good one that involved drugs and other unmentionables but music brought back. I wouldn't be who I am today with out the music department	Mar 13, 2012 3:10 AM
98	Without the kingston school district music program, I would not be the person I am today. I am a senior and without music, I would have two classes to be in all day. Without music, I would have been home-schooled. Music has impacted my life in such a way that no AP class could ever dream of doing. I can't even imagine what my life would be like without this program, and I don't want the future children of the district to not have the amazing opportunities I've had.	Mar 12, 2012 8:40 PM
99	As an AP/ honors student, i find that i probably couldnt last a day without band! Im swamped with work and my instrument is my favorite outlet. Music soothes people, and makong music does that, plus exercising your brain. Id be lost without my "bamily" (band-family).	Mar 12, 2012 8:01 PM to purchase it now when we have tough choices to make. Clubs and sports exist outside of the school day. In a time of financial difficulty they should be the first to go! Parent groups will fund raise for the most heavily supported clubs/sports. In terms of band/orchestra, why was chorus also not listed? As far as I am aware, the current budgets are similar. In terms of both elementary music and art, both are currently state mandated subjects and cannot be cut. In terms of both AP courses and Band/Chorus/Orchestra, classes must be offered for the exceptional and talented students in this district. Without these offerings more gifted students will start to look into private educations. We do not have a choice in terms of what we offer the students who fall at the lower end of the spectrum. It is sad that we continually attempt to cut those offerings for the students at the higher end.

103	I have a student that is in the top 1% of his class. W/O AP classes like calculus, exactly what is available for him to take in mathmatics after 10th grade? I see that language seems to be less important in some of the surrounding school districts and I am thankful that we still have a language program, but if they phase out language after the 3rd year of study there are many schools including NYU, Cornel, and Tufts who will not even look at your application! To cut honors kids short in their last two years of high school from taking challenging AP level courses puts them at a severe disadvantage! Orchestra and Band get tossed into the fire every year at budget time as possibly the first things to fry. My 15 year old sat first chair at Area All State this year. W/o a school program, are you aware that he would not have qualified beyond All County. Music kids are involved and keep typically represent the children who have higher academic test scores. Demolish those courses and watch the stats drop significantly! Look at what strings have done for Middletown Schools!	Mar 12, 2012 7:49 PM

111	Please consider smaller class sizes, especially in our inner city schools. With higher expectations coupled with disruptive student behavior issues teachers have to manage-this is a critical need. I also believe that the elementary band/orchestra is not as important as when students get to the MS. The program is excellent at M.S. and H.S. level, but as a teacher in the elementary level, these young students are not committed nor responsible to participate.	Mar 12, 2012 6:51 PM
112	It is mine, and many others, not only in the High School, but also in the district, that we keep and build on the Music and Art programs. Students need an elective that allows them to express themselves in a way that is unique to them. Also, it is a way for them to grow as an individual through the experience of being pushed out of their comfort zone to build on things they may not be comfortable with, but will no doubt improve upon. 126	KHS music program is one of the best programs in the area. It would severely diminish the quality of the school if we didn't have our wonderful band and chorus. To keep these programs insturction needs to occur in elementary school.	Mar 12, 2012 8:55 AM
127	Being part of a large district, my children have been able to participate in intramurals, modified sports, band, and more. These are the "extras" that I think serve as the benefits of being in a larger district. The midle school band program, under the direction of Mr. Treat and Mr. Shaut, has been a highlight for my 7th grade daughter, and my 5th grade daughter can't wait to get to Bailey simply so that she can be part of the band. Clubs, organizations, athletics, etc. all provide outlets for students and allow them to develop their skills and interests. Just this weekend there was an article in The Freeman and talked about the increase in graduation rates at Middletown Hlgh School and how it was directly linked to an afterschool music program - helping kids feel more involved in and connected to their school community. 130	I believe our music program is extremely important part of our children's education in this district. It is scientifically proven that children who participate in music programs in school perform better in literacy, math, and over all IQ. Should the music program be removed due to budget cuts, I my opinion, will have disasttrous results. Hundreds of children will be affected throughout the district. So many children would be denied the opportunity to continue with their musical instruments ... taught be incredible teachers in our school community. How many students who dream of attending college for music education, music performance will be denied that opportunity if this program is cut. How many children who are not natural athletes, don't have that "crowd" they are a part of, but have music in their lives because of what our district currently offers and SHOULD CONTINUE to offer. 135	I think so many of our students are fighting so hard to get into college the extra activities they do like sports, music, art, clubs and organizations gives them oportunities that they would not have if those things were not offered. Your average parent cannot afford to put one child through college so for those families with more than one child they depend on scholarships to provide a quality education. This is a social issue that is shared with the community. Skilled labor is not what it used to be and without a degree it is that much harder for someone to make it in this world/economy which negatively impacts our society.	Mar 9, 2012 12:42 PM

138	I feel school climate is critical especially with the changes we face as a district. I believe, more than ever, we need a comprehensive plan to improve morale and bring people together. Mar 6, 2012 9:08 AM
154	In the areas of elem. art and music and alternative education I believe we need to partner more with outside agencies! We live in the perfect area (near woodstock & New Paltz) to include the arts in our school district. I also believe it may be in our best interest to look into other ways to provide summer school, altern. ed. and night school. I have an 8th grader with a 97 average...what we DON'T want to do is lose AP classes and Electives!!!! Our Enrichment program now is not what it should be and we do not have magnet schools (wish we did). As a district employee and a mom...I do not feel we do enough for our student who are great students, we focus so much on the ones that aren't making it...when are we going to give the students performing above grade level some attention? 163	There is nothing about reducing administration. Only about taking away from education. Is your goal really about preserving your job and educating the children at a mediocre level? Yes, hard decisions need to be made, but you cut from the top first. Music and art have been proven over & over again on how they are very important in the learning process. Critical thinking, mathematics etc., etc. It would be very short sighted to eliminate these classes. Unless, again you are aiming for a mediocre education. A smaller class size has always been preferred, however a well supported larger classroom can be successful also (with TA's). It would not be acceptable to fill the classrooms to capacity and take things away, such as computers in the classrooms. Also, the different elementary schools, for example need to be treated equally. My children play sports. Even though I would not like to see sports cut, there are many local organizations that are available to our youth at little to reasonable cost. The same can not be said of the arts. Elementary music needs to change its program to be more effective and enjoyable for the students. Art suffers at the elementary level also. It needs to be updated also. Both subjects deserve more time and attention than I can write here. It maybe time to embrace the community to see if more active after school programs can be created for the elementary level etc.	Mar 5, 2012 8:26 AM
164	I think it is critical that we continue to offer quality experiences outside core curriculum (math, science, english, etc.) as it is very often THOSE experiences that carry forward to adulthood and create lasting meaning in people's lives.	Mar 5, 2012 7:46 AM
165	We need to focus on why we are a district in need of improvement - focus on academics, move music groups to the activity period at the end of the day and have more time for ACADEMICS in the school day.	Mar 5, 2012 7:37 AM
166	Classroom Sizes shouldnt exceed 22	Mar 5, 2012 6:59 AM

177	All the "extras" are nice to have but in times like this;spend money on what is needed most academically and that is small class sizes. Let's stick with the common core curriculum,the three r's, whatever the catch frase. What happens in the classroom is most importnat to student growth. Music,art,alternative ed,etc. are things I as a parent can seek out privately and pay for myself if I feel my child "needs" it. Just like dance classetc.	Mar 4, 2012 2:46 PM
178	I think that there is mistrust of the district especially with regards to the budget. Where do the numbers come from? How did they really pay for Montessori? Staff from other schools have been concerned about how poorly prepared the students were when they transfered to other building. The "double dipping" that occured at the high school. was suspected by some but people were afraid to talk about it. People have been hired in the district that were friends or relatives of the superintendent that were sometimes inexperienced and minimally qualiftied when other excellent teachers with their masters continued to sub. Smaller class size is not a solution by itself but should be considered based on what the students' needs are. Night School is a great alternative to some students but how many and is there a more effective (cost and instructional way to do it)? How much does it currently cost and what are the results? We have to reach those students but is this the best way? Alternative education can mean many things and does not say anything about the program and its ability to engage and educate. 186	Orchestra, band and AP classes are of the utmost importance. Without these "extras" the Kingston School District would present as substandard, at best. For example, my family would explore moving to a different district.	Mar 3, 2012 7:15 AM

203	The Montessori program is a fantastic program and deserves support and time to grow.	Mar 2, 2012 2:54 PM
204	The HS must move into a technology based learning center. We are way behind the times.	Mar 2, 2012 2:39 PM
205	While not high importance for AP, high importance for honors classes. District should negotiate harder with the union- I want my tax dollars to go toward education, not someone's pension that is more than anyone else in our area gets.	Mar 2, 2012 1:57 PM
206	I believe more kids need to be involved in clubs. Students should be encouraged to be a part of a club for at the very least the social contact for kids who are afraid to become part of something. I heard a rumor of homeroom or an activity period during the day. That would be essential for many kids who are "lost"	Mar 2, 2012 1:35 PM
207	We want a high proportion of students to not only graduate, but to go to college. Thus, AP classes and extra-curriculars, clubs, etc, are what makes students competitive and eligable candidates to be accepted. Without leaders in a community, there is no community. We need to support those who will oneday return and lead the town to greatness.	Mar 2, 2012 1:31 PM
208	hard to pick when all are so important! My understanding is that summer school isn't very effective, so that is why I gave it a low rating. Night school is important, but is it well-utlized? Maybe there is another way to provide that service? We can't get rid of AP--is there a way to share them with other districts through BOCES or to open our offerings up to surrounding districts?	Mar 2, 2012 1:30 PM
209	My child's Kindergarten class has 26 students. This is way too much and must be addressed.	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
210	Childs class has 26! In first grade that is way too many.	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
211	cannot click on any circles	Mar 2, 2012 1:22 PM
212	concentrate on doing what is mandated well. cut out the extras -the taxpayers are to stressed.	Mar 2, 2012 1:11 PM
213	Kingston has an unusually strong music program. It is one of the reason that we chose the district over some of the neighboring school districts.	Mar 2, 2012 12:56 PM
214	Sports, Music, Clubs and Activities are critical to making a well rounded young adult. Keeping the kids busy keeps them off the streets and out of trouble. Sports helped my 3 kids. It's not just a "jock" thing. The team bonding, working together, and learning to deal with triumphs and tragedies goes a long way in preparing for life.	Mar 2, 2012 12:30 PM

Q1. Please read each area on the left and select the description from the row above that best defines, for you, how important the area is for the schools and community.

215	I believe far too many resources are devoted to "alternative" education type programs - night school, summer school, etc, to accomodate low achievers. Their should be (at least) an equal amount of resources devoted to high achievers to ensure they are able to maximize their potential.	Mar 2, 2012 12:29 PM
216	Keep the Arts! They are needed for a well rounded education.	Mar 2, 2012 12:26 PM
217	Music/art encourage creativity, vital to growth. Summer school and alternative ed. can be shared with other districts. Night school give dropouts a second chance.	Mar 2, 2012 12:21 PM
218	Eliminate the of Montessori program to save money!!!! It is not working.	Mar 2, 2012 12:20 PM
219	Please keep art and music a top priority from kindergarten on.	Mar 2, 2012 12:20 PM
220	Do not target disabled children...the superintendents recent quotes in the Kingston Daily Teacher Hater (Freeman) are a thinly veiled hint at where he wants to save money. Close Zena. This school being open is ridiculous given budget constraints.	Mar 2, 2012 12:16 PM
221	Of all of those listed Summer school is the one that is the least impactful to the WHOLE student body.	Mar 2, 2012 11:51 AM
222	Alternative Ed. and Nights\school should be paid for through the parents of these student 9 out of 10 that attend these programs attend because they get in trouble cant control them selves and on and on and on why should us tax payers have to support bad behavior	Mar 2, 2012 11:46 AM
223	We need to prepare our students for the 21st century	Mar 2, 2012 11:38 AM
224	Students should have one option for completing school, any more should be at a cost to them.	Mar 2, 2012 10:40 AM
225	All are important for success	Mar 2, 2012 8:02 AM
226	no	Mar 2, 2012 7:50 AM
227	Can items like Summer School, Alternative Education and Night School find a "common" supplier, like BOCES? Or a neighboring district to share the expense?	Mar 2, 2012 6:49 AM
228	I think teachers need to do more. They don't work a full day and they don't work the summer and they get more days off due to snow, holidays etc. for the amount of money they make they can put in an honest days work. Any time I ask a teacher to give my child a little extra it is a no. Once I asked if a teacher could stay after for 15 minutes during the week to help my child with reading and they wouldn't. I remember teachers always staying after to help their students when I was younger. Teachers want more money to do less these days. And lets face it, the amount of money they make is ridiculous when compared to what a nurse makes or a policeman, fire fighter etc.	Mar 2, 2012 5:59 AM
229	Make our basic.. a priority,the taxpayer is paying the bill	Mar 2, 2012 4:59 AM

Q1. Please read each area on the left and select the description from the row above that best defines, for you, how important the area is for the schools and community.

230	You place this on the kids, you take away from THEM. Take away from teachers pensions & health benefits, they should be treated like any other person that works, they are no more special than us. Elementary school colors in music, art, library, gym & class currently. SHOULD be confined to their class and Art, but since it isn't, taking away 2 classes that they color in isn't doing much harm to them.	Mar 2, 2012 4:52 AM
231	YES. Transportation not there, need to stop the two bus runs 9th and 10th period, would cut those run costs in half. Also, look at those contractors and contracts carefully and eliminate the waste. Also, if you had Miller AND Bailey Modified teams for all sports *you have the numbers of students and talent, the minimal salary for a coach would be FAR less than the daily cost of the bus runs to the other schools.	Mar 2, 2012 4:29 AM
232	I think as a student all of these things are important for all students. To give them options that will help with their future. Point them in the right direction.	Mar 1, 2012 7:12 PM
233	Graduation rate of athletes/musicians/artists is 99%. Preserve these programs please.	Mar 1, 2012 7:00 PM
234	music and arts are very important to kids.	Mar 1, 2012 6:00 PM
235	Keep class sizes low in early elementary to help avoid issues later	Mar 1, 2012 5:45 PM
236	Very difficult times. Hard to decide what to cut and what to keep. Please look at special education. Way too much money going there. Parents need to be part of the cost of their children and not left to become a burden for everyone. Yes, we help, but to what level. Please put an equal amount of money to those who would benefit from enrichment.	Mar 1, 2012 4:07 PM
237	I think we need more alternative education opportunities and starting earlier (such as 7th grade).	Mar 1, 2012 1:12 PM
238	I believe that our district's mission to educate all students is most important. The Montessori program at the elementary level and alternative education programs at the high school level are essential to this mission and should be expanded. Programs that enable students to discover their passion for learning using methods that match their learning styles are essential for all students, especial those who excel and those who need remediation.	Mar 1, 2012 10:09 AM

Q2. The state's tax levy limit legislation (commonly known as the "Tax Cap") will be in effect for the first time in the 2012-2013 school year. How would you rate your understanding of this new law and its impact on public schools?

1	Taxes are rising, while salaries (mine at least) stay constant. Capping the rise of taxes at a low rate does help the little guys like us.	Mar 15, 2012 8:52 AM
2	Between closing school(s) and larger class sizes, I believe we should be able to DECREASE our Budget needs!	Mar 15, 2012 6:06 AM
3	The tax cap cripples school districts ability to provide a well rounded education to the communities they serve without substantially solving the problem of rising property taxes. Another solution for reducing property tax hikes while still funding education should be sought.	Mar 14, 2012 8:28 PM
4	The Tax Cap was intended to slow the ridiculous overspending increases each year. The real need is to reduce the actual cost not slow the increase in cost per pupil per year.	Mar 14, 2012 7:44 PM
5	Necessary evil- we have priced ourselves out of the market on school taxes but we need to keep improving the district	Mar 14, 2012 7:01 PM
6	Nope, I never really heard much at the tax cap and the impact it will on on schools.	Mar 14, 2012 3:44 PM
7	my school taxes in KCS D increased 110% in 10 years , the graduation rates have fallen while the teachers pay goes up every year ,it is time to abandon KCS D	Mar 14, 2012 2:47 PM
8	Something must be done to control expenses as taxes have rendered us non-competitive in the marketplace. People are voting with their feet. 11,000 down to 7,000. Need any more proof?????	Mar 14, 2012 2:14 PM
9	No	Mar 14, 2012 1:26 PM
10	I think the tax cap is a bad idea and a poor solution to the problem of rising property taxes. There are other, better solutions available, and the governor was wrong to pick this one.	Mar 14, 2012 10:51 AM
11	it is just political posturing, and very harmful to education	Mar 14, 2012 9:24 AM
12	We need to stay within the cap since the budget is going to go up every year more than 2% based upon the formula allowed	Mar 14, 2012 5:52 AM
13	The Tax cap is unfair and hurts the school districts...and forces choices to be made that are not to the benefit of our children or our community.	Mar 14, 2012 5:39 AM
14	I don't believe an arbitrary number can be applied to all districts. There may be extraordinary circumstances that require higher expenditures. I feel a wage freeze is needed now and a salary cap for all positions.	Mar 14, 2012 5:31 AM
15	School districts need to continue to communicate about larger long term costs so the public won't have to bear spikes in tax increases any given year... It is the single major reason for home foreclosures, in my opinion.	Mar 14, 2012 5:08 AM
16	It is certainly an approach at trying to reign in the constantly escalating costs	Mar 14, 2012 3:13 AM

Q2. The state's tax levy limit legislation (commonly known as the "Tax Cap") will be in effect for the first time in the 2012-2013 school year. How would you rate your understanding of this new law and its impact on public schools?

	associated within the Kingston School system, with what appears to be a sometimes less than stellar results.
17	It has been proven that the towns have been able to get around this tax cap, so I am sure the school districts will figure it out too	Mar 13, 2012 7:47 PM
18	I support it. I had no raise last year and a I my performance rating was very high and I work for a very profitable company as many others in this area do. So, to continually have everything else increase, puts the squeeze on the pocket book. Soon I will be on a fix retirement income. I will support this even more. Many seniors are on very limited budgets and taxes will put them out of their homes. Then there will be no taxes paid on the property unless someone can buy it which who has $30,000 laying around to pay a 20% down on a mortgage now as required by the banks. As our management says, find a way to do it smarter and cheaper. Choices will have to be made.	Mar 13, 2012 7:41 PM
19	Taxes are absolutely necessary, so I don't understand why the government feels like capping them will yield a good result.	Mar 13, 2012 7:14 PM
20	Not good legislation. It is not realistic. The state of NY needs to fund exponentially more and reduce mandates in combination for the cap to be successful. Success is a quality and safe education for all pupils of this very expansive and diverse district.	Mar 13, 2012 6:29 PM
21	I fully support going over the 2% tax cap. Please preserve our educational and extra-curricular programs.	Mar 13, 2012 6:14 PM
22	I think it place an unfair burden on our already struggling schools.	Mar 13, 2012 5:53 PM
23	The tax cap is a terrible, terrible idea. I do not support the tax cap. I would vote for a tax cap override.	Mar 13, 2012 5:40 PM
24	This is, without a doubt, a political ploy by our Governor to squeeze every political entity in NY and will force school districts specifically to consolidate. As a result, you MUST get your labor contracts in line with the tax cap. The majority of your budget is people (salaries and benefits) so it's pretty simple.	Mar 13, 2012 4:39 PM
25	First time it is in use, it will not be easy.	Mar 13, 2012 4:33 PM
26	Instead, New York State should eliminate more Regents exams to reduce costs.	Mar 13, 2012 4:10 PM
27	A mistake!	Mar 13, 2012 3:42 PM
28	No.	Mar 13, 2012 3:03 PM
29	It is ridiculous and will only hurt the 'mandated' programs and those that enrich our childrens' lives.	Mar 13, 2012 2:12 PM
30	no	Mar 13, 2012 1:33 PM
31	The school district is probably going to override what ever tax caps they can	Mar 13, 2012 1:01 PM

Q2. The state's tax levy limit legislation (commonly known as the "Tax Cap") will be in effect for the first time in the 2012-2013 school year. How would you rate your understanding of this new law and its impact on public schools?

32	Stay within the tax cap, the taxpayers can't afford the high taxes now.	Mar 13, 2012 11:24 AM
33	Since so much is excluded it is useless.	Mar 13, 2012 10:51 AM
34	There is much waste and inefficient mandates that have to be challenged	Mar 13, 2012 10:25 AM
35	I think that the tax cap is useless without reducing the number of federal and state mandates which eat up funding that could better used in other areas.	Mar 13, 2012 10:22 AM
36	It is essential until another way to fund education is found.	Mar 13, 2012 10:07 AM
37	no	Mar 13, 2012 9:12 AM
38	The tax cap was passed because property taxes are wildly out of control mainly due to school budgets that are not being properly managed.	Mar 13, 2012 8:57 AM
39	I dont know enough about it to provide an answer	Mar 13, 2012 7:59 AM
40	Kingston School district needs to work within the tax cap and make some prudent decisions on how they spend their capital.	Mar 13, 2012 7:40 AM
41	Just the same thing we have all been saying for year... property taxes are not the way to fund public education! This has to be fixed on that level before the problem is fixed.	Mar 13, 2012 7:21 AM
42	I serve on another municipality and I think municipalities need to make their voice heard in Albany that this cap is RIDICULOUS!!!	Mar 13, 2012 7:20 AM
43	I believe it is the state's way of destroying many districts in need.	Mar 13, 2012 7:18 AM
44	I have not heard much about the details on this new law.	Mar 13, 2012 7:16 AM
45	Is it true that any increase over a certain percent is subject to voters?	Mar 13, 2012 7:15 AM
46	Cut teachers salaries for an obviously failing educational system. Why are we rewarding teachers who turn out uneducated students?	Mar 13, 2012 7:07 AM
47	Great idea but it does not go far enough	Mar 13, 2012 7:06 AM
48	It's an intrusion by the state into local school districts.	Mar 13, 2012 7:04 AM
49	Why not go out to bid on health insurance?	Mar 13, 2012 5:50 AM
50	If necessary opt out. Keep the class sizes small or we will raise an entire generation of people not capable of working at wallmat.	Mar 12, 2012 7:30 PM
51	I feel that the Music and Art programs MUST remain in the city school district for the sake of the teachers in the programs and for the students.	Mar 12, 2012 6:41 PM
52	The tax cap should not be an excuse to cut music and art programs.	Mar 12, 2012 4:32 PM
53	We must now get them to repeal many of the mandates and let Education be	Mar 12, 2012 3:06 PM truly done on a local level.

54	I think that something needed to be done about the relentless tax increases in the State, but this just puts programs and capital improvements in conflict with each other. There are mandates and personnel costs that are fixed and this makes the budget almost impossible. I sympathize with the difficulties the board faces. Maybe bring back more students from BOCES programs and meeting their needs in district would help?	Mar 12, 2012 2:52 PM
55	Supermajority!!!!	Mar 12, 2012 2:28 PM
56	I support the tax cap, as taxes have gone up too much over the last ten years. I realize that most of the budget is not under the direct control of the district. But more must be done to eliminate unfunded mandates and unreasonable teacher compensation -- not salaries, which are probably about right, but the pension benefits are far above private industry.	Mar 12, 2012 1:36 PM
57	I like pineapples. Oh and I think as a city there are so many other ways to get tax money other than the school system. For Instance, traffic tickets, and just stop wasting money on things that we don't even need.	Mar 12, 2012 12:51 PM
59	We need a new way other than on the backs of property owners to fund education. This has been an issue for more than the 20 years we have lived here.	Mar 11, 2012 8:59 AM
60	I think we should attempt to vote to supercede the tax cap - which I understand is a serious challenge since most budgets are only passed with just over 50%, and to exceed the cap would require 60%.	Mar 10, 2012 11:44 AM
61	Even though I am a tax payer it concerns me the impact it will have on our schools.	Mar 9, 2012 12:42 PM
62	Does state education TRULY receive funds from the lottery tickets like it is supposed to? There MUST BE a better way to fund education instead of taxes.	Mar 9, 2012 10:16 AM
63	Unnecessary	Mar 8, 2012 10:58 AM
64	I don't agree with it.	Mar 8, 2012 7:22 AM
65	the tax cap is a good idea in theory, but meaningless in execution. It does not allow for change outside a very limited scope.	Mar 7, 2012 7:45 PM
66	The quality of education is going to go down because there is going to be less "man-power" to serve the children's needs due to less funding to the school district.	Mar 7, 2012 7:35 PM
67	I think the district needs to put forth a budget within the tax cap. Teacher salaries need to be addressed and salaries frozen at this time.	Mar 7, 2012 6:07 PM
68	this should be made more available and known to the student body, as well as	Mar 7, 2012 3:49 PM

69	It sucks and should be overthrown. Property taxes should not fund our schools. We should lobby Albany/US to change this	Mar 6, 2012 9:33 AM
70	I wish it were stated in clear, concise language so that it could be understood by all...not enmeshed in gobbeldy-gook!	Mar 6, 2012 9:08 AM
71	Unfortunately, with respect to all parties, It is long overdue. What most people don't understand is the need for centralized services. All of Ulster County school districts have their own payroll staff, however it could all be handled through Boces, Why with so few Superintendents, are we fighting for them could they not be shared among the county. And why does it always boil down to cutting the activities dedicated to the kids vs, administrative.	Mar 6, 2012 5:48 AM
72	I understand that there is a limit and I understand that that requires cuts and sacrifices but as long as these are well thought out and planned according to the betterment of the communities it effects than there should be no problem... Otherwise I feel a stronger board is essential to make decisions that will effect us in the long run. (as taxpayers and parents)	Mar 5, 2012 6:12 PM
73	They have a cap of 2%, but that can be changed to a higher per-centage.	Mar 5, 2012 3:32 PM
74	The tax cap should not be exceeded and we need to decrease taxes further in our district much further.	Mar 5, 2012 11:32 AM
75	No	Mar 5, 2012 10:32 AM
76	I feel we should not be paying any more then we already do.	Mar 5, 2012 10:03 AM
77	I feel that specialist on the subjects at hand should meet with parents and teachers and make amutual decisions on th changes needed.	Mar 5, 2012 9:15 AM
78	I think it is ridiculous and should be repealed.	Mar 5, 2012 7:46 AM
79	good in theory not good in practice. we are all under enormous financial pressure and a tax cap sounds like at great idea, but not at the expense of our children.	Mar 5, 2012 6:43 AM
80	I don't understand it	Mar 5, 2012 6:36 AM
81	Although the Tax Cap can be beneficial for people paying taxes, those of us who have children in school will be impacted by the Cap. The wonderful music, art, and athletic programs are always the first to go. These programs are the ones that children prefer. A way for them to be connected to others and work as a team. It gives them an extra drive to come to school. If these are taken away I'm afraid on how this will impact their future as an adult. Working in society can be difficult if the skills of working together is not established while young.	Mar 5, 2012 6:28 AM
82	It's a band-aid reaction to inflation, cost increases and a stagnant economy. A tremendous load is about to be dropped on NYS schools with 25% of teachers' and administrators' time be taken up with evaluation and testing. This will	Mar 5, 2012 6:06 AM eventually have a cost effect and is state mandate.

83	Should have been enacted much sooner.	Mar 5, 2012 5:59 AM
84	We need relief from the year to year tax increases. Whether or not the tax cap is the correct solution, it's a start	Mar 5, 2012 5:16 AM
85	I believe it is a good idea. when someone wages don't go up, but the taxes keep going up, it does not help.	Mar 4, 2012 9:11 PM
86	The misconceptions surrounding the tax cap should be clearly explained. It is also important for the general public to realize both the short and long term effects of the tax cap and the underfunding of our school district. Deep cuts to programing and staff will decimate our district and the quality of education offered in Kingston.	Mar 4, 2012 9:00 PM
87	I think it is a good idea that the school district is being asked to have cap on spending, they need to look at the whole picture, not just programs that affects the students.	Mar 4, 2012 2:49 PM
88	I don't agree with the cap; but I feel the strain as a tax payer. Clearly we need another means of funding education. Maybe the lottery should be taken out of the general fund and used just for education as it used to be. I don't agree with RTTT either! It shouldn't be a competition! Education should be funded plain and simple,without it where would we be?	Mar 4, 2012 2:46 PM
89	The tax cap is unrealistic. Especially since it is less than the cost of living in New York State in the last ten years. It is going to have a detrimental impact on our public education system.	Mar 4, 2012 11:48 AM
90	quality education should be our goal	Mar 4, 2012 9:47 AM
91	If school districts like business and personal households had worked harder to stay with in the constrains of their budgets and better manged monies the stat would not have had to go to this extreme. That being said it is also time for less archaic employee benefits packages that cash strap schools systems. Why should we need to choose between proper education and programs and an out of control Employees union that demands far more than the average non public employee can hope for.	Mar 3, 2012 1:37 PM
92	Personally, I would vote in favor of an override in the cap. The cap does not appear to allow for sufficient funding of essential programs.	Mar 3, 2012 10:46 AM
93	Learn to deal. There is waste going on. Specifically- in at least one elementary school, using educators to 'take notes at meetings', requiring paying a substitute. Also, when educators seek to advance their career by becoming a Principal, they should do so on their own time. Taxpayers don't need to pay for a substitute for an entire school year while an educator trains for principalship. These two specific references are what gets me angry. Also, to help the American economy, I want textbooks produced entirely in USA. Currently, the students have their hands in ink from China. Look for yourself.	Mar 3, 2012 10:39 AM

Q2. The state's tax levy limit legislation (commonly known as the "Tax Cap") will be in effect for the first time in the 2012-2013 school year. How would you rate your understanding of this new law and its impact on public schools?

94	School district negotiators have to realize that the days of yearly 5% raises for teachers ad infinitum is over. Elementary school teachers should not be making 100K in this district.	Mar 3, 2012 7:38 AM
95	as parents we need to all be clear about what the vote means and how our choices can effect our childrens education.	Mar 3, 2012 6:47 AM
96	please send out information through the schools or on website to explain this.	Mar 3, 2012 6:33 AM
97	Money spent on education is money well spent.	Mar 3, 2012 6:00 AM
98	I think we should file to override the tax cap.	Mar 3, 2012 3:50 AM
99	I	Mar 3, 2012 3:45 AM
100	I agree with holding spending. The entitlement belief that we have to give everything to our children has gotten us into trouble.	Mar 2, 2012 9:21 PM
101	Cut duplicated and wasteful paperwork and procedures.	Mar 2, 2012 7:02 PM
102	It is extremely shortsighted and harmful to districts	Mar 2, 2012 6:43 PM
103	I think it is not sustainable and as a result each year more cuts will have to be made.	Mar 2, 2012 5:54 PM
104	The tax cap wont effect our community if someone goes into the trust and looks carefully at the way the teachers are enrolled and how benefits are paid out.	Mar 2, 2012 4:53 PM
105	The tax cap is necessary.	Mar 2, 2012 4:38 PM
106	I am in full support of the cap. As a person working in the private sector, I believe that the time has come to begin changing the negotiations with the teachers. It is absolutely ridiculous that they do not pay into their healthcare, and that they have 3-4% raises annually, regardless of their performance. The private sector has to shoulder these expenses. As a member of the private sector, I not only have to pay more into my health insurance every year (and most companies are only offering high-deductible plans), but I have to pay more and more in taxes to cover the teachers, who are actually receiving 15% raises because they are not affected by the rising costs. It is a shame that the quality of our schools has to suffer due to these issues, but, let's face it, no one has yet demonstrated the ability to actually stand-up to the teacher's union. So, if that means that the class sizes are larger, and teachers have to work a little harder (more than the average of 3-4 direct hours of student contact daily), so be it.	Mar 2, 2012 4:31 PM
107	yeah - it's too high. Should be NO tax increases or better yet, decreases	Mar 2, 2012 3:16 PM
108	Administration is top heavy. Why dont we make cuts at the top? When a tree gets overgrown, tree trimmers start at the top, to save something valuable. Instead of cutting student services and teachers, which are foundation of the education system, other areas should be examined!	Mar 2, 2012 3:01 PM
109	Explain it for us.	Mar 2, 2012 2:54 PM

Q2. The state's tax levy limit legislation (commonly known as the "Tax Cap") will be in effect for the first time in the 2012-2013 school year. How would you rate your understanding of this new law and its impact on public schools?

110	We would generally beat it, there should not be a problem in Kingston	Mar 2, 2012 2:39 PM
111	Is there an easy website you can link to from KCSD website on this?	Mar 2, 2012 2:10 PM
112	Why is no consideration being given to cut programs or save money other than through educational programs. I have children in 2 different schools, both of whose classrooms are regularly over 80 degrees throughout the year. How about correcting the heating issue? ALL areas need to be looked at in order to make reductions.	Mar 2, 2012 1:55 PM
113	I hope that we are able to ferret-out inefficiencies in the current system so that the tax cap won't hurt as much.	Mar 2, 2012 1:30 PM
114	I am fully aware of the challenges that the tax cap presents, but we need to put the needs of the students first. Even if it means voting to override the %2 tax cap. A strong school system not only prepares our children for their future, but benefits a community in many ways. A strong school district helps the economy by raising house values, bringing in new families, and creating jobs. We should concentrate on making our district the best it can be for the students and community no matter what. If NEED to make cuts, we should concentrate on doing away with state mandates not by cutting programs that benefit our children.	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
115	Keep to it. The teachers deserve a fair pay but like most school systems you give way too much to top administrators put the money back in the classrooms with the teachers and kids. Stop cramming class to the max at Edson - unless you want the scores to keep going down.	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
116	This wasn't a good idea- i am not in favor of it- it is too difficult for schools to comply without cuts. It's a unfunded mandate. also- cannot click on any circles	Mar 2, 2012 1:22 PM
117	It was long overdue	Mar 2, 2012 1:19 PM
118	one must keep in mind that many people on fixed incomes donot have the opportunity to have pay an increase in their taxes..	Mar 2, 2012 1:16 PM
119	Don't get cute with the exceptions and exemptions. Stick to the spirit of the cap on tax bills. better yet make the increase on tax bills ZERO!	Mar 2, 2012 1:11 PM
120	Schools should be funded via income tax rather than separate property tax levy; it pits homeowners against students for no good reason.	Mar 2, 2012 12:55 PM
121	What fits under the cap, and what is not included? Why? And who makes the decision on what is or is not included?	Mar 2, 2012 12:35 PM
122	The tax cap was another political ploy in Albany to make Cuomo look good. It's very easy to dictate to local districts that they have to limit tax increases, while at the same time increasing other fiscal mandates.	Mar 2, 2012 12:29 PM
123	It's political grandstanding by the most anti-teacher governor our state has had the misfortune of enduring in my lifetime.	Mar 2, 2012 12:16 PM

Q2. The state's tax levy limit legislation (commonly known as the "Tax Cap") will be in effect for the first time in the 2012-2013 school year. How would you rate your understanding of this new law and its impact on public schools?

124	As a property owner, naturally I want my taxes to be as low as possible but not at the cost of the public education system. Students need teachers who care and programs they care about to stay engaged and to stay out of trouble.	Mar 2, 2012 12:06 PM
125	It is an awful disservice to our students. We need to change the way we fund our education.	Mar 2, 2012 11:51 AM
126	It's long overdue. School system is too top heavy with administration & specialists.	Mar 2, 2012 11:47 AM
127	It's a shame this cap was passed. It ties the hands of voters in making decisions about our school district.	Mar 2, 2012 11:38 AM
128	no	Mar 2, 2012 7:50 AM
129	It's a bad idea. Proposition 13 ruined California's public schools.	Mar 2, 2012 7:33 AM
130	The tax cap will do little to help improve schools or keep costs down. All it does is shift the burden from the State to local government while both Federal and State mandates eat up funds that could be used elsewhere.	Mar 2, 2012 5:57 AM
131	Make choices good for the children and stop protecting the staff and their positions .Clean out the failing programs and make good use of what this district has	Mar 2, 2012 4:59 AM
132	If you mobilize the YES vote through tools like this, you could get the 60% Yes, of those who turn out, to go higher than the cap....	Mar 2, 2012 4:29 AM
133	Student, I don't know what the tax cap is.	Mar 1, 2012 7:12 PM
134	Hope it gets repealed	Mar 1, 2012 7:02 PM
135	It seems like a quick fix to the local and state budget/deficit problem, but I worry about the long term effects and how sustainable it really is.	Mar 1, 2012 3:31 PM
136	I believe that the tax cap legislation will have a detrimental impact upon our educational system and was supported by those who have an interest in privatizing our public schools. I am certain that our board and administration have been examining many ways to cut spending. Perhaps, the bus routes could be considered for cuts, if they have not been examined closely. Our child walks to school and is healthier for it. Many sections of Kingston are "walker friendly" and this could be prioritized while considering redistricting the elementary lines.	Mar 1, 2012 10:09 AM
137	I understand the challenges it creates for school districts, but it was necessary. Many people are unemployed and more are underemployed. Look at the foreclosure rates.	Mar 1, 2012 9:50 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

1	yes [Yes]	Mar 15, 2012 10:14 AM
2	Yes [Yes]	Mar 15, 2012 8:52 AM
3	Likely, depending upon the nature of the repair and the severity of the defect needing repair. [Maybe]	Mar 15, 2012 6:24 AM
4	Most definitely! [Yes]	Mar 15, 2012 6:06 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

24	It would depend on the imminent need for the repair and the priority it should be given. [Maybe]	Mar 14, 2012 12:06 PM
25	Yes [Yes]	Mar 14, 2012 10:58 AM
26	Yes, for a worthwhile project. However, it is wrong to say it would have no tax impact. It might have no local property-tax impact, but the money ultimately comes from us taxpayers. [Maybe]	Mar 14, 2012 10:51 AM
27	it would depend on what it was that they were repairing [Maybe]	Mar 14, 2012 10:00 AM

56	Yes [Yes]	Mar 13, 2012 7:47 PM
57	Yes and No. Considering I don't know what your building repair budget is and how much you might not have used int he past, if you have a million dollar overage I would be glad to support the project. If you have to get rid of music, art, and cut teachers jobs, then the repairs would have be such that they are absolutely needed. [Maybe]	Mar 13, 2012 7:41 PM

213	If in fact it is a zero in pact....other propasals have been made, and approved and later found out to IMPACT the taxpayers [Maybe]	Mar 13, 2012 7:20 AM
214	I would consider the project only after the district has determined what schools would remain open. My primary concern is not my tax impact. I would support the project if it makes good educational sense. I think it was foolish to make the decision to pave the Crown Street parking lot when there is so much uncertainty with which buildings will remain open. [Maybe]	Mar 13, 2012 7:18 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

409	I would support a building repair project regardless, so long as the money is actually being spent for repairs, instead of additions such as the Carnegie building, its new computers, and the cameras. [Maybe]	Mar 7, 2012 3:49 PM
410	Absolutely [Yes]	Mar 7, 2012 3:40 PM
411	Most definately! All of the buildings are in need of desperate repair, ie, poor air quality due to mold, deteriorating plumbing, need of painting. A perfect example is my kindergarten classroom only has hot (I mean) hot water, brown water! I	Mar 7, 2012 3:19 PM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

	can go on and on with the list, but you and your staff already know what the problems are. Please fix them instead of putting bandaids on them!!!! [Yes]
412	only if the repair is absolutely needed [Maybe]	Mar 7, 2012 2:59 PM
413	yes [Yes]	Mar 7, 2012 1:20 PM
414	That depends...is it a NEED or a WANT? [Maybe]	Mar 7, 2012 12:23 PM
415	Yes, Crosby portables are in need of serious repair or replacement. [Yes]	Mar 7, 2012 8:37 AM
416	Stupid question as there is no such thing as a 0 impact capital project [Not applicable]	Mar 7, 2012 8:20 AM
417	yes [Yes]	Mar 7, 2012 4:49 AM
418	Most likely. What other impact would it have on the environment or the community? [Maybe]	Mar 6, 2012 7:38 PM
419	No. Money could be better spent elsewhere. [No]	Mar 6, 2012 6:26 PM
420	Yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 6:12 PM
421	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 3:15 PM
422	Absolutely - how about re-doing bathrooms, most are disgusting that I have been in...no doors, non-working sinks...gross! I would even accept my taxes going up for this versus salary increases or teachers not paying towards their health benefits like the rest of the world does. [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 1:53 PM
423	Yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 1:22 PM
424	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 1:22 PM

429	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 11:06 AM
430	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 10:48 AM
431	Depends, if the money is taken from something that hurts the students then no. [Maybe]	Mar 6, 2012 10:05 AM
432	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 9:33 AM
433	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 9:16 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

434	Duh...YES!! But please be clear---no subterfuge...FULLY no impact...or the state/federal gov't would fund the materials and the taxpayers would fund the labor....? Or the state/federal gov't would fund [Maybe]	Mar 6, 2012 9:08 AM
435	yes! [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 8:55 AM
436	As long as it doesn't take away funds from students. [Maybe]	Mar 6, 2012 8:06 AM
437	yes [Yes]	Mar 6, 2012 6:20 AM
438	Repairs need to be done. Some of our schools are dumpy and need to be updated. [Maybe]	Mar 6, 2012 5:48 AM
439	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 8:08 PM
440	Yes, as long as there are little to no cuts to teachers. Repairs need to be done but not at the expense of the students' education. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 7:15 PM
441	not sure. I would like to see our district take better care of our buildings. Just a simple thing. I drive by JWB and the blinds are a mess. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 7:10 PM
442	possible [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 6:24 PM
443	depends on the circumstances of the project. The high school project is a joke and is not beneficial to anyone at this point in time... Fixing and maintaining the schools in jeopardy of closing along with the other schools that are within the 8 million dollar level is a project I would support to the max [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 6:12 PM
444	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 5:32 PM
445	There is always a catch to this and we end up paying [Not applicable]	Mar 5, 2012 5:27 PM
446	Yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 4:29 PM
447	Only if teacher hiring and educational programs were .it negatively effected. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 4:09 PM
448	If there was no impact on my taxes. Yes, but it always seem to raise taxes anyway. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 3:32 PM
449	Probably, depends on the project, though. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 2:33 PM
450	Yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 1:32 PM
451	I do not live in the district [Not applicable]	Mar 5, 2012 1:13 PM
452	yes. especially if it was a repair or restructuring of the high school [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 11:33 AM
453	I doubt it as nothing comes for free. I guess it would entriely depend on the overall burden on both the state and local tax payers. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 11:32 AM
454	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 10:40 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

455	Of course. [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 10:32 AM
456	Maybe [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 10:03 AM
457	Yes, but how is this going to be done? [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 9:45 AM
458	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 9:15 AM
459	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 8:53 AM
460	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 8:26 AM
461	yes,only if it didn't effect taxpayers [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 8:22 AM
462	No [No]	Mar 5, 2012 8:13 AM
463	Depends on how that repair fit into the long term strategy for the district. For example, I would oppose a massive renovation of the High School, even if it were free. What is needed there are innovative alternatives to simply "fixing" what we already have. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 7:46 AM
464	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 7:37 AM
465	yes [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 7:18 AM
466	Yes, as long as our taxes impacted [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 7:11 AM
467	yes as long as it doesnt impact the tax payer, school taxes are already too high!!! [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 6:59 AM
468	Depending on what specifically it was, yes. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 6:57 AM
469	yes! [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 6:43 AM

476	Absolutely. Start with Crown St. It's a disgrace. I will work on it for free. The carpet is from the 70's!! [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 6:06 AM
477	Absolutely. [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 5:59 AM
478	yes, but we have heard this before. Unless the money is available prior to starting, not too many people will believe it. [Maybe]	Mar 5, 2012 5:16 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

479	Yes - the high school needs it! [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 4:53 AM
480	why not? [Yes]	Mar 5, 2012 4:19 AM

489	yes [Yes]	Mar 4, 2012 3:44 PM
490	No, you still need to pay for the maintenance of that building for years to come [No]	Mar 4, 2012 2:49 PM
491	Yes I would! [Yes]	Mar 4, 2012 2:46 PM
492	It would depend on the cost of financing and how long and how much the debt for the improvements would be [Maybe]	Mar 4, 2012 1:16 PM
493	Yes [Yes]	Mar 4, 2012 11:48 AM
494	yes [Yes]	Mar 4, 2012 9:47 AM
495	yes [Yes]	Mar 4, 2012 9:15 AM
496	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 4, 2012 8:41 AM
497	depends on the project and its importance. If it is to repair a leaking roof, than yes. If it were to replace heating systems and there is evidence that the efficiency would level out the cost, yes, to repair things that are not 100% necessary or cosmetic, than no. [Maybe]	Mar 4, 2012 8:08 AM
498	I support utilizing the local elementary schools that are already in very good shape (i.e. Zena Elementary Schol) [Not applicable]	Mar 4, 2012 7:15 AM

504	Yes [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 5:58 PM
505	Yes [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 3:48 PM
506	I would support it if it had a minimal effect and that the monies were properly spent and not squandered on useless reports and construction companies that misrepresent themselves and go well over budget. [Maybe]	Mar 3, 2012 1:37 PM
507	yes [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 1:16 PM
508	yes [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 1:05 PM
509	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 12:36 PM
510	I would be completely suspicious of the zero tax impact. state taxes are my taxes , as well [Maybe]	Mar 3, 2012 10:58 AM
511	yes [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 10:52 AM
512	Yes, but how is that possible? [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 10:46 AM
513	As a member of a Local construction Union, YES. I cannot stomach paying for projects performed by the non-union sector while myself or other local construction union members are waiting for work and collecting NYS unemployment. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 10:39 AM
514	Of course. Asking relevant survey questions should be a priority for the district when publishing surveys such as this. Wouldn't everyone support a building repair project that would have a zero tax impact on them? Why not ask if they would support a school repair project that impacted their taxes? Why only ten questions when there are so many issues facing the Kingston School District? [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 10:20 AM
515	Yes [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 9:31 AM

521	Absolutely [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 7:15 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

522	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 7:08 AM
523	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 6:59 AM
524	yes without question. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 6:47 AM
525	Yes, as long as the money used by the district would not be generated by closing a school or making class sizes larger. [Maybe]	Mar 3, 2012 6:33 AM
526	do not know [Maybe]	Mar 3, 2012 6:26 AM
527	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 6:13 AM
528	Of course. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 6:00 AM
529	Yes, if it means better facilities for educating, not just senseless waste. If a building has a health hazard, it should be addressed, period! If it isn't necessary, we should look at it when we aren't in financial crisis. [Maybe]	Mar 3, 2012 5:53 AM
530	Sincerely zero tax impact? Why would I not support it? [Maybe]	Mar 3, 2012 5:27 AM
531	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 3, 2012 4:08 AM

545	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 6:47 PM
546	Perhaps. It might be better to build new. I am not aware of a suitable plan and site for building new, though. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 6:43 PM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

547	definitely [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 6:29 PM
548	Yes Depending on the project [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 5:54 PM
549	Depends on how critical the repair, where it stands in terms of District priorities. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 5:46 PM
550	no [No]	Mar 2, 2012 5:43 PM
551	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 5:29 PM

553	Yes!!!! [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 5:11 PM
554	ok [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 4:57 PM
555	I would depending on who was overseeing the project. We can't afford another jail fiasco. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 4:53 PM
556	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 4:38 PM
557	That would depend if it were presented as a zero impact project, that would end up costing hundreds of thousands down the road. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 4:31 PM
558	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 4:24 PM

569	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:46 PM
570	YES [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:39 PM
571	Not unless I knew the source of the money to pay for it. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 2:36 PM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

572	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:33 PM
573	Of course [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:31 PM
574	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:16 PM
575	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:10 PM
576	Based on what is stated here...yes. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:05 PM
577	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 2:05 PM
578	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:57 PM
579	If it was a necessary and cost-effective building repair project, yes. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 1:55 PM
580	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:50 PM
581	Yesy [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:47 PM
582	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:35 PM
583	I am unable to answer that question without a real scenario attached to it...for example, if there are 5 projects on the table and they all have a zero tax impact, but only one or two can be chosen, I would like to choose from those 5. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 1:31 PM
584	Yes, absolutely, as long as the repairs were appropriately prioritized. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 1:30 PM
585	YES! [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
586	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
587	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:22 PM
588	HOW is that possible?! Someone (taxpayers) have to pay somehow. With a zero tax increase ($ not just %) then I would probably support this. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 1:19 PM
589	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:16 PM
590	maybe [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 1:14 PM
591	If that is a guarentee, tes. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 1:11 PM
592	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 1:05 PM
593	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:57 PM
594	I would support school building repair even if it increased my taxes. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:56 PM
595	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:55 PM
596	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:45 PM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

597	yes as long as it is not pushing off the cost to the future where tougher cuts will need to be made as a result [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 12:44 PM
598	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:38 PM
599	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:35 PM
600	Yes, I would. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:30 PM
601	By zero tax impact I'm assuming you mean that building repair projects would be performed without raising taxes. Of course I'm for tax neutral ideas, however I would like to know at the expense of what other existing programs such a repair project would come. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 12:29 PM
602	Totally. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:26 PM
603	YES! [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:21 PM
604	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:20 PM

607	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:19 PM
608	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:18 PM
609	of course [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:17 PM
610	I would support one that resulted in a tax increase. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:16 PM
611	YES [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:06 PM
612	Absolutely, as long as necessary programs aren't being cut to fund it. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 12:06 PM
613	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:05 PM
614	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 12:04 PM
615	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:58 AM
616	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:57 AM
617	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:54 AM
618	Yes! [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:51 AM
619	money isn't everything- it would depend on the project. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 11:50 AM
620	Yes, but communication would be imperative to make sure the public understands. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:48 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

621	zero impact - yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:47 AM
622	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:46 AM
623	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:38 AM
624	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 11:34 AM
625	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 10:44 AM
626	It depends on the project, most projects take everything to the extreme and functioning and pretty are two different things [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 10:40 AM
627	yes [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 10:16 AM
628	Probably assuming it was thoroughly explained. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 9:58 AM
629	yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 9:41 AM
630	Yes - if they were more than just cosmetic. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 8:45 AM
631	YES [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 8:20 AM
632	Yes [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 8:02 AM

Q3. If the District proposed a school building repair project that would have a zero tax impact would you support the project?

647	Yes. [Yes]	Mar 2, 2012 5:13 AM
648	It depends [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 5:09 AM
649	Maybe....this district must utilize what it has ,people are not working,steady lay off's in the area,and PEOPLE ARE MOVING OUT OF AREA,which does create low enrollment [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 4:59 AM
650	Possibly-need specifics. [Maybe]	Mar 2, 2012 4:52 AM

701	Yes [Yes]	Mar 1, 2012 9:33 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

1	Kingston High School needs to be remodeled desperately.	Mar 15, 2012 6:24 AM
2	To me, all our buildings need GOOD ROOFS - #1 Priority (an efficient heating system is NO GOOD if it's raining inside!). Priority #2 - windows and doors. Priority #3 - once #1 and #2 established - then it's time to make sure the HEATING SYSTEM is energy efficient. Priority #4 - BATHROOMS - in WORKING order! Priority #5 - energy-efficient lighting. Priority #6 - working lockers.	Mar 15, 2012 6:06 AM
3	KHS first.	Mar 15, 2012 5:28 AM
4	No.	Mar 14, 2012 8:28 PM
5	Maintain Your buildings and properties! Neglect costs more in the short and long term. Why don't you have a Category about Property Tax Payer and Non Property Tax Payer in question #5 Below?	Mar 14, 2012 7:44 PM
6	The buildings are really old and the carpet at KHS hasn't changed since I graduated in 1971	Mar 14, 2012 7:01 PM
7	It would depend on what it was.	Mar 14, 2012 5:35 PM
8	I do not understand the need for a large budget repair of the Zena school parking lot. It doesn't really look like it is in bad shape. Is there something we don't know about?	Mar 14, 2012 4:04 PM
9	Nope	Mar 14, 2012 3:44 PM
10	It is very important to keep the teachers salary the same, even if it means getting rid of something, but I need music to stay.	Mar 14, 2012 2:56 PM
11	need to bring into balance employee cost and capital maintenance of building	Mar 14, 2012 2:47 PM
12	The district hs not constructed a new school building in many,many years. What a disgrace!	Mar 14, 2012 2:14 PM
13	They are essential to further the district's mission. The school capital projects must be utilized to advance the district into the 21st century	Mar 14, 2012 2:13 PM
14	No	Mar 14, 2012 1:26 PM
15	This district has been woefully mismanaged over too many years, and now the chickens are coming home to roost all at once, at a very poor time. There is a need for capital projects, but given the school board's track record, why should taxpayers trust that the money will not be wasted in whole or in part?	Mar 14, 2012 10:51 AM
16	no	Mar 14, 2012 10:00 AM
17	a new high school should be built	Mar 14, 2012 9:24 AM
18	Some of the capital projects seem overpriced or unnecessary. We need to be sure that decisions are carefully.	Mar 14, 2012 7:40 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

19	Yes. Delaying capital projects is only going to cost us more in the long run. Interest rates are historically low right now, and the more we delay these projects the worse our infrastructure becomes.	Mar 14, 2012 5:55 AM
20	It is important to maintain the infrastructure	Mar 14, 2012 5:39 AM
21	A long range plan should address timely capital projects.	Mar 14, 2012 5:31 AM
22	No	Mar 14, 2012 5:23 AM
23	When I see the quality of educational opportunity provided by our wonderful and hard-working staff, I am convinced that an intelligent maintenance of our existing facilities is not only a sound idea, but that it is a reflection of what is truly important. New facilities are nice to look at but they are not what the kids need. An investment in capital funding should go to quality maintenance and repair of existing structures. Some ideas put out there to build a new high school are fueled by egos that need to be recognized, and that is not in the public interest.	Mar 14, 2012 5:08 AM
24	Yep... I saw in an earlier "required capital projects" list items as repaving parking lots, painting parking areas.. etc... I find some of the district parking lots in much better condition than the Kingston city streets.. and if teachers, students and those working at each of the schools cannot park a vehicle without painted lines best go back to driving school...	Mar 14, 2012 3:13 AM
25	They are important	Mar 13, 2012 8:53 PM
26	I believe by putting off capital projects, our buildings are falling into disrepair, and will cost 10x more to replace or even repair by putting off	Mar 13, 2012 7:47 PM
27	What capital projects do you have for us to give you our thoughts on??? Why aren't they listed here?	Mar 13, 2012 7:41 PM
28	make less profit on lunches. higher quality food	Mar 13, 2012 7:19 PM
29	Be smart about your spending.	Mar 13, 2012 6:39 PM
30	You keep wasting money assessing unnecessary projects like building schools on flood plains and demolishing parts of KHS when that money could've put towards repairs over the years, keeping you from having to dump way more money into massive repairs for issues that have been allowed to grow for years.	Mar 13, 2012 6:28 PM
31	They are surely needed at the high school.	Mar 13, 2012 6:17 PM
32	They are very important. Our facilities are in need of updates and impact how we and are children value education.	Mar 13, 2012 6:11 PM
33	No	Mar 13, 2012 6:10 PM
34	Shouldn't be the high school, these things should be addressed yearly and not all at once.	Mar 13, 2012 6:02 PM
35	If done on budget and on time - we support.	Mar 13, 2012 5:47 PM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

36	Please see above.	Mar 13, 2012 5:40 PM
37	We must stay on top of capital projects so we are not faced with million $ issues!	Mar 13, 2012 5:30 PM
38	Too much, too late.	Mar 13, 2012 4:42 PM
39	Spend the money wisely. We have many areas where we could improve our buildings. Do not spend money on frills, and nice things to have, instead spend the money on essentials.	Mar 13, 2012 4:39 PM
40	Once again, the Carnegie Building sits empty at night - where is the organization that was going to "rent" this from the district?	Mar 13, 2012 4:38 PM
41	I feel they should go forward.	Mar 13, 2012 4:33 PM
42	Not the best time to be doing them. The public is not in a positive frame of mind.	Mar 13, 2012 3:53 PM
43	Important to keep safe environment.	Mar 13, 2012 3:42 PM
44	it seems like a lot of these projects were left undone, and now it is a huge project and a huge expense	Mar 13, 2012 3:16 PM
45	It is sad that buildings have been neglected to this point. Use good judgement once again in deciding what is most critical and what is really non essential. Like stage curtains, etc.	Mar 13, 2012 3:13 PM
46	Not really.	Mar 13, 2012 3:03 PM
47	The district must update its infrastructure , especially KHS	Mar 13, 2012 2:53 PM
48	would like you to bundle school grades like onteora and new paltz. k-2 3-6 7-9 10-12 it will benifit our children, save money and preserve local schools. so get on it	Mar 13, 2012 2:20 PM
49	It is long overdue. The buildings need to be repaired.	Mar 13, 2012 2:12 PM
50	no	Mar 13, 2012 1:33 PM
51	Be reasonable. If they are needed and can save the district money in the long term, let's do it.	Mar 13, 2012 1:16 PM
52	Please continue to be open about why decisions are being made so the public understands rationales.	Mar 13, 2012 1:02 PM
53	I think there is a lot of waste in the Kingston school district	Mar 13, 2012 1:01 PM
54	The schools must be repaired and maintained before they get to the point where it is not worth it. For example if we were to build a new high school and not maintain it we will be in the same boat we are in now in 20 years or so.	Mar 13, 2012 12:53 PM
55	With the school taxes we are currently paying, there is no way they should be increased to finance any capital projects.	Mar 13, 2012 12:15 PM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

56	If taxpayers have to pay for them in these stressful economic times, I say forget them.	Mar 13, 2012 11:24 AM
57	Nice buildings at the cost of good education is not helpful. There is just so much money to go around.	Mar 13, 2012 10:51 AM
58	Our school buildings need to be updated	Mar 13, 2012 10:45 AM
59	Very good and necessary for our delapidated buildings. Excessive administrative salaries should be eliminated.	Mar 13, 2012 10:25 AM
60	Get rid of the house system. You are going to waste millions on a education theory that might no longer be popular by the time the project is done. Focus on just the technology upgrades which can be done at a fraction of the cost.	Mar 13, 2012 10:22 AM
61	cut executives first	Mar 13, 2012 10:21 AM
62	Much needed at the high school, especially. Aging infrastructure requires upkeep and maintenance; we are already in a state of serious disrepair.	Mar 13, 2012 10:13 AM
63	No	Mar 13, 2012 10:01 AM
64	I agree that we need to spend money to keep our schools safe and up to date with current times.	Mar 13, 2012 9:38 AM
65	Move grade 6 back to elementary and grade 9 back to middle school. In this way, no schools would have to be closed and KHS does not need expansion, SAVES MONEY, SCHOOLS AND PRESERVES young CHILDRENS' WELL-BEING and STABILITY in their schools	Mar 13, 2012 9:24 AM
66	ALL WINDOWS NEED TO BE CLOSED IN WINTER MONTHS TO LOWER HEATING BILLS...THIS ITSELF WOULD SAVE $$$-ALOT.	Mar 13, 2012 9:17 AM
67	no	Mar 13, 2012 9:12 AM
68	School projects are important need to be done in order to maintain the buildings and thus have a positive impact on the teachers and students.	Mar 13, 2012 9:01 AM
69	The school budget in general is out of control. When are we going to see a budget decrease? Last years budget went up by 0.4% yet the tax levy went up by 4.9%!!! That is outrageous and unacceptable.	Mar 13, 2012 8:57 AM
70	The schools will be here for a long time. Big projects are important and should provide lasting returns.	Mar 13, 2012 8:20 AM
71	PLEASE KEEP PARENTS AND PUBLIC AWARE. The School Board hides way too many decisions, information, and mistakes.	Mar 13, 2012 7:59 AM
72	we need to upgrade our buildings.	Mar 13, 2012 7:57 AM
73	keep within budget	Mar 13, 2012 7:46 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

74	There is no need for school capital projects.	Mar 13, 2012 7:40 AM
75	No	Mar 13, 2012 7:39 AM
76	Seems as though consolidation would have the most impact now and for future costs	Mar 13, 2012 7:36 AM
77	Simply put... We can't afford anything!!	Mar 13, 2012 7:34 AM
78	Safety, accessibility to the disabled, and energy efficiency should be the primary concerns when proposing projects.	Mar 13, 2012 7:27 AM
79	Speaking as a business owner and having under gone construction the district gets way to high quotes on their jobs!!!!!! Coruption !	Mar 13, 2012 7:25 AM
80	Do only what is essential.	Mar 13, 2012 7:23 AM
81	There is a lot to be done. Should probably start at the top and work our way down... KHS needs an overhaul! It should be the county's premier HS and should attract residence. Right now it scaresthem away. On a slightly different note... redistricting send more kids to Zena and Anna Devine to ellivate the crowding in the city schools... I believe those outliers enjoy very small classes. Our poorest of kids in the city should get the smaller classes.	Mar 13, 2012 7:21 AM
82	The schools should go green	Mar 13, 2012 7:20 AM
83	Kingston better start improving their infrastucture, most buildings are at or darn near close to being outdated or condemnable.	Mar 13, 2012 7:20 AM
84	see #3	Mar 13, 2012 7:18 AM
85	It is essential to keep improving our environment to keep our education strong and positive. Projects need to be planned out thoroughly for the best possible solution. What is best for the students?!	Mar 13, 2012 7:16 AM
86	We have to maintain the school for their property value.	Mar 13, 2012 7:15 AM
87	no	Mar 13, 2012 7:10 AM
88	No new buildings until the current buildings are fixed.	Mar 13, 2012 7:06 AM
89	The bidding process should be investigated.	Mar 13, 2012 7:04 AM
90	I think the most important thing to consider is using funds where they would be the most beneficial.Do not sink funds into outdated structures. We need a new High School. I am quite sentimental in the fact that my father went there, myself and my siblings went there and now my children are going there, but the campus is in dire need of upgrades, renovations.	Mar 13, 2012 7:01 AM
91	All of the School buildings are old and still need a lot of work just to keep up to minimum standards	Mar 13, 2012 6:59 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

92	Turn the high school into one big middle school and move the high school out to Miller and expand the building / fields out there	Mar 13, 2012 6:51 AM
93	We need a new High School	Mar 13, 2012 6:42 AM
94	Whatever the projects may be we must consider long term issues and not quick fixes.	Mar 13, 2012 6:26 AM
95	Growth and improvement are important, but not at the cost of cutting programs. It's a difficult to balance these things, especially in these financially difficulty times. Seek a better way ~ stop thinking along 'traditional lines and really go 'outside the box'. You can't get the right answers. the right solutions to the problems if you are not asking the right questions, taking the time to view things from many different perspectives... keeping an open mind is essential.	Mar 13, 2012 6:17 AM
96	a great investment.	Mar 13, 2012 5:47 AM
97	Keep the high school in its current location, as an anchor institution for mid town.	Mar 13, 2012 5:38 AM
98	Nope	Mar 13, 2012 3:10 AM
99	no	Mar 12, 2012 9:26 PM
100	Even when school repair projects are financially covered by the state, the district must utilize numerous district employees to manage and pull off the repairs. Also, some of our district buildings may be closing in the next few years and putting any more time and money into them would not be in the districts best interest right now.	Mar 12, 2012 7:58 PM
101	Mo' money less problems.	Mar 12, 2012 7:51 PM
102	It should be all about the kids best interest.	Mar 12, 2012 7:47 PM
103	not that i know of.	Mar 12, 2012 7:40 PM
104	No	Mar 12, 2012 7:37 PM
105	Yes, there is. I understand that the Highschool is falling apart and I would like a written explanation for the apparent lack of necessary and timely repairs and upgrades. I also understand that all 11 of the elementary schools have older furnaces. Why wasn't a 1/3 approach used? One third new, down to 1/3 in need of replacement?	Mar 12, 2012 7:30 PM
106	Once we have buildings repaired, we need to spend money on maintaining our buildings so that they don't end up in such bad shape again.	Mar 12, 2012 7:11 PM
107	This is necessary to improve morale and the way students feel about being in a building for 8 hours.	Mar 12, 2012 6:51 PM
108	The high school is an embarrassment and as exists incompatible with a 21 st century education.	Mar 12, 2012 6:48 PM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

109	do the projects that affect the safety of students and staff first	Mar 12, 2012 5:58 PM
110	No	Mar 12, 2012 4:42 PM
111	not really	Mar 12, 2012 4:39 PM
112	No	Mar 12, 2012 4:36 PM
113	Any project that is approved must be strictly monitored so that the costs do not go over budget	Mar 12, 2012 4:35 PM
114	Proritization needs improvement.	Mar 12, 2012 4:32 PM
115	Lets start by truly maintaining what we have Not just clean it, maintain it.	Mar 12, 2012 3:06 PM
116	Not really	Mar 12, 2012 2:55 PM
117	I am afraid that if a new or second hs is built the diversity of the hs experience in Kingston will be greatly diminished.	Mar 12, 2012 2:52 PM
118	Keep the front face of the high school, tear the rest down and replace it. Move the school to tech city while construction is going on.	Mar 12, 2012 2:10 PM
119	Some of the buildings in our district are in great need of repair and shouldn't be neglected or "bandaged" any longer.	Mar 12, 2012 1:59 PM
120	Maintenance must not be skimped on. The budget must include yearly allowances for maintenance, as well as a set aside for major items. Anything else is just more costly in the long run.	Mar 12, 2012 1:36 PM
121	No	Mar 12, 2012 1:34 PM
122	I would not support any capitol projects that would include a tax hike. Also with closing a school that should not be needed	Mar 12, 2012 1:13 PM
123	i think we should be spending less on the computers in our school and more on the heating/AC system	Mar 12, 2012 11:41 AM
124	They are necessary.	Mar 12, 2012 10:45 AM
125	needed	Mar 12, 2012 9:40 AM
126	Schools that are in disrepair send a message to our students - we don't care. Let's take rpide in our school buildings so that our students will take pride in themselves and the work they do within those walls.	Mar 12, 2012 8:00 AM
127	It's better to repair now than replace later.	Mar 12, 2012 7:20 AM
128	no	Mar 12, 2012 7:03 AM
129	Allow non-union contractors and workers. It's ridiculous how much more is spent when you hamper yourselves with union-only contractors and work.	Mar 12, 2012 6:59 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

130	If they are needed then they are essential to be examined when planning the budget.	Mar 12, 2012 6:40 AM
131	Whatever is done needs to be done to help better our school district over all for the safety of the schools and to benefit the students to offer better atmosphere to learn in.	Mar 11, 2012 5:52 PM

133	The schools are in dire need of repair and paint.	Mar 11, 2012 4:36 PM
134	Too much is spent on the "thinking" phases and never really gets the project done. We need to think forward- spend a dime now to save a dollar rather than spend a penny now and many dollars later.... what ever happened to the progressive thinkers and planners?	Mar 11, 2012 8:59 AM
135	Let's keep our schools looking good and something the community can be proud of.	Mar 10, 2012 4:18 PM
136	We must continue to spend capital money every year. With budgets as they currently are they must be less than in times with more relaxed budgets, but they must continue.	Mar 10, 2012 11:44 AM

143	While I appreciate the importance of maintaining our schools at this point I am much more interested and concerned about the QUALITY of education being presented.	Mar 9, 2012 6:51 AM
144	Not on school capital projects but since there space here to give other opinions, let me use this...I ABSOLUTELY would like to see district employees take the same concessions that the rest of the public employed people in this state or taking. Examples...NO RAISES, pay out of your salary toward health insurance benefits. I am a public employee and this is my personal situation right now. Enough already of the high salaries for 180 days of work and additional pay if you happen to work during the summer!! The only sector of the taxpayer base that can afford the taxes are Kingston City Schools employees!	Mar 8, 2012 7:46 PM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

145	We need a yearly plan	Mar 8, 2012 7:15 PM
146	no new projects	Mar 8, 2012 3:26 PM
147	Some of these buildings are legitimately falling apart. Repairs are necessary but should be itemized and budgeted in advance on a rotating basis.	Mar 8, 2012 2:10 PM
148	Many of our schools are in NEED of repairs. The Crosby "portables" are a disgrace and if class sizes keep increasing we surely need of more space.	Mar 8, 2012 12:01 PM
149	There are many rumors about mismanagement of school funds - this is the greatest concern regarding any school capital projects.	Mar 8, 2012 10:25 AM
150	They are important to the safety and learning of our children.	Mar 8, 2012 9:18 AM
151	They need to be done. Our current buildings need to be kept up better. Not just swept and mopped.	Mar 8, 2012 7:22 AM
152	I think that there should be a way that it should cost less of our hard earned money to get these projects completed by the time my youngest graduates.	Mar 8, 2012 7:15 AM
153	We need to review the use of all of the schools as a whole and possibly move the high school to another building such as Miller/Crosby. Then use the current high school building as a middle school. Also put 6th grade back into the elementary schools where there is much room. This would also eliminate the money needed to renovate whatever building for the high school.	Mar 8, 2012 4:01 AM
154	The Carnegie building was and is a waste of funds. It serves an extremely limited number of students, and was presented at the expense of elementary schools.	Mar 7, 2012 7:45 PM
155	Not now	Mar 7, 2012 6:07 PM
156	No	Mar 7, 2012 3:40 PM
157	This may be off topic, but with the closing of schools many parents are worried about where their child will go next year. Unfortunately, when you have a special needs child they can be shuffled anywhere in the district from year to year. It seems as though the children who need the most consistency get the least. Please when you make your changes keep this in mind because, yes, you may cut programs, but if you were consistent with where the child attends from year to year there may not be as much regression therefore needing less services.	Mar 7, 2012 2:59 PM
158	no	Mar 7, 2012 1:20 PM
159	The entire district should be moved to Tech City, where all elementary, middle and high schools could share a campus	Mar 7, 2012 8:20 AM

177	Building repairs and maintenance must be kept up or it will cost more in the long run.	Mar 5, 2012 6:42 AM
178	I would be in support of moving the high school somewhere else. Kingston has become a ghetto.	Mar 5, 2012 6:36 AM
179	I think the district needs school capital projects.	Mar 5, 2012 6:35 AM
180	It is always important to improve our schools...at the very least to keep them in good working condition. Children are our future and worth the extra dollars!!	Mar 5, 2012 6:28 AM and out nearly every day. There inn't anything about that school strucualy speaking that i see that hasn't been a fault since i went there 20 plus years ago. Its fixable and im willing to bet its MUCH less expensive to repair if the school board did some shoping around. Even go out of state if needed. Living in and remodeling a very small house of my own I know there is plenty that can be done to "get it up to code" as if that was EVER a proble before. Its a waste of a good school, good child investment and a gauruntee to bring property values down. One of wich is my own.

183	While we do need it, the tax payers of the district just do not have the money to pay for it. Nobody is getting the hint that we are broke. Our salaries are not going up, we are losing our jobs, having issues paying the mortgages, and being squeezed at both ends.	Mar 5, 2012 5:16 AM
184	Be smart with the funds, hire a construction rep for the business who can manage the architect and CM. If we learned anything from the Jail is someone with experience should be overseeing the project.	Mar 5, 2012 4:53 AM
185	Repairing out of date buildings while trying to maintain quality education, over years seems like a very bad idea?	Mar 5, 2012 4:19 AM

187	Buildings need to be maintained	Mar 4, 2012 6:00 PM
188	Clearly there is greasing of palms and the rich of the county getting richer- at the cost of our children's education and our tax dollars- as seen with the Kingston HS land in the Town of Ulster debacle. There is no excuse!	Mar 4, 2012 5:58 PM
189	They are overdue.	Mar 4, 2012 4:03 PM
190	it's important to our buildings up.	Mar 4, 2012 3:44 PM
191	They need to be done and I support that. I just want you to be frugal when choosing a design plan. Safe,efficient and functional should be top priorities. We don't need anything too fancy or frilly.We have beautiful buildings;we just let them go for too long.	Mar 4, 2012 2:46 PM
192	Need to streamline what is most needed, not just wanted	Mar 4, 2012 1:16 PM
193	We must maintain the buildings that we have and redesign them to be functional for our current uses. We must invest in the infrastructure of each building and provide yearly maintenance on them.	Mar 4, 2012 11:48 AM
194	repairs need to be done some of our schools are in disrepair	Mar 4, 2012 9:47 AM
195	No.	Mar 4, 2012 8:41 AM
196	WE need to focus on better use of what we have. Eliminate structure that are no longer used. Consolidate where possible and spend on the update of current facilities. Given our current economic times it is unreasonable to look at	Mar 3, 2012 1:37 PM expansive capital projects that the tax base can not afford.

197	I believe it is essential for Kingston as a community to maintain a diverse and accelerated courses in its schools. When people look to move to an area, one of the first and foremost things they look at is the schools, the facilities and the programs.	Mar 3, 2012 12:36 PM
198	They cannot be supported in this fiscal climate.	Mar 3, 2012 10:58 AM
199	I think that union membership requires that we look out for one another, all construction should be performed by the very available and very competent and capable Union construction worker.	Mar 3, 2012 10:39 AM
200	School capital projects have to be a priority. Every year that they are put off or postponed costs the taxpayers more money in the long run.	Mar 3, 2012 10:20 AM
201	Just make sure spend less. Or spend wisely.	Mar 3, 2012 9:31 AM
202	I think you should lower costs of education by only having an administrator or 2 for the entire county not for each school building. This works in the South.	Mar 3, 2012 9:25 AM
203	They are necessary. It's foolish to wait til buildings etc. are beyond repair.	Mar 3, 2012 9:20 AM
204	New HS would be great, but not politically doable. Do as much as you can with small increments.	Mar 3, 2012 7:38 AM
205	it was ridiculous to put all the money into Meagher when now it is closing	Mar 3, 2012 7:31 AM
206	Please focus on improving the high school!	Mar 3, 2012 7:15 AM
207	If you are speaking of schools raising their own captial to fund projects they feel they need... I do not see anything wrong with this. This is a community of people getting together to rally for the things they feel are important. It is a community effort.	Mar 3, 2012 6:47 AM
208	Explain how this works through schools and website.	Mar 3, 2012 6:33 AM

210	Don't build on a flood plain. Don't spend money on high priced consultants and studies.	Mar 3, 2012 6:00 AM
211	We need a delivery system that works, if Capital Reserves need to go towards a newly configured KHS, I am for that. All district students go there and it needs to serve all students needs.	Mar 3, 2012 5:53 AM
212	They had better be some right the first time.	Mar 3, 2012 5:27 AM
213	YOu have done a good job. The High school NEEDS to be renovated.	Mar 3, 2012 3:50 AM
214	We can't afford to let things go - the longer we wait, the more expensive repairs will be	Mar 3, 2012 3:45 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

215	I love the Montessori teaching at George Washington and hope it continues for years and years.	Mar 3, 2012 3:18 AM
216	I see a lot of waste in the schools. Hoses running outside, water running in bathrooms, lights on when not needed and most importantly, heat cranked way to high all the time. My child can wear a simple tshirt in school all day even on days with temps in the teens.	Mar 2, 2012 10:30 PM
217	Realize that school taxes are severely hurting many people in our district. We cannot have and do everything. Please, show the courage to say "no" to some thing so we can say yes to the people who live in the district and pay taxes.	Mar 2, 2012 9:21 PM
218	Not at this time	Mar 2, 2012 7:13 PM
219	Needed projects only. We don't need all that "fancy architecture".	Mar 2, 2012 7:02 PM
220	N/A	Mar 2, 2012 6:47 PM
221	think about going green. maybe that would save the district some $$ in energy reduction.	Mar 2, 2012 6:29 PM
222	I think the BOE has dragged it's feet and has made some poor choices like the monies spent to hold the land in the flood zone.	Mar 2, 2012 5:54 PM
223	Seems to me the District's priorities re capital projects have been fairly well defined. Decisions depend on funds available. (Excel funding?) Some things have to wait.	Mar 2, 2012 5:46 PM
224	we missed the federal and state aid opps	Mar 2, 2012 5:43 PM
225	Our children need to be safe and warm.	Mar 2, 2012 5:20 PM
226	The capital projects don't seem to be properly managed. The last one that was supposed to take care of many different issues in all the buildings ran out of money before half of the work was done.	Mar 2, 2012 4:53 PM
227	Previous Boards of Education ignored maintenance issues and now we have several major problems that need immediate attention.	Mar 2, 2012 4:38 PM
228	The schools should be structurally sound. This is more important than the presence of a Montessori Program, which only serves the few.	Mar 2, 2012 4:31 PM
229	I willing to pay for capital projects.	Mar 2, 2012 3:32 PM
230	The buildings need to be kept up.	Mar 2, 2012 3:28 PM
231	Infrastructure only repairs!	Mar 2, 2012 3:01 PM
232	Please move to renovate the HS. I know it won't be in time to help my son	Mar 2, 2012 2:39 PM
233	I'd like to know why no one has considered cutting the large cost paid to Cisco every year. There are highly reliable alternatives.	Mar 2, 2012 2:36 PM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

234	no	Mar 2, 2012 2:16 PM
235	Maintainance saves money overall.	Mar 2, 2012 2:05 PM
236	It is of great importance to keep maintaining our buildings to prevent the need for costlier repairs in the future.	Mar 2, 2012 1:50 PM
237	We have to do something about the high school. It is insulting to the students who learn there and the staff who work there.	Mar 2, 2012 1:30 PM
238	I am not sure I know too much about them.	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
239	Fix what is needed. If we spent millions on criminals where is the money for the schools our kids go to? When ever possible kids and parents should help beautify our schools as volunter efforts.	Mar 2, 2012 1:28 PM
240	You have to pay for them within your existing income and that means something has to give. You MUST address salaries and benefits (at least a new teir).	Mar 2, 2012 1:19 PM
241	roofing always needs repair work,	Mar 2, 2012 1:16 PM
242	Get with a regular maintenance program that addresses these needs yearly. Set money aside to fund periodical issues and stop putting these costs off in favor of all those extra, nonmandated courses, electives and such. Spendonthe essential must haves first.	Mar 2, 2012 1:11 PM
243	Given the low interest rates at this time the District is in an unusally good position to be able to fund capital projects. Many of the buildings - esp the High School are in serious need of updating. Our physical facilities are below the standards of many of our neighboring districts.	Mar 2, 2012 12:56 PM
245	We must maintain and rebuild our educational infrastructure	Mar 2, 2012 12:35 PM
246	I know it's needed as many areas have been neglected over the years, but... That is for major projects. It's sad that little things aren't taken care of. Janitors and Maintenance staffs should be able to make basic repairs... carpentry, masonry, painting, fixing side walks, windows, etc. You should not have to hire out for basics. Make these people accountable too. There are a few that take great pride in keeping their schools presentable, but most have a hard time just pushing a broom.	Mar 2, 2012 12:30 PM
247	I think all buildings are severely lacking in technological infrastructure that is needed in the 21st Century. Getting buildings equipped for technology would be my first area of focus for any capital improvements.	Mar 2, 2012 12:29 PM
248	If it means imprving the school so there is a healthy atmosphere to learn in, I'm all for it.	Mar 2, 2012 12:26 PM
249	These type projects are very important to preserving the learning environment, and the public's investment. Energy conservation and primary systems (roofing,	Mar 2, 2012 12:21 PM heating, etc.) are #1, while new building and realignment of existing buildings are less important. Projects should be done with local labor, and direction. Construction management companies are almost universally overpriced and over-rated.

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

250	In this economic climate if they are really necessary, they should be done. If not, then they should be put on hold until economic conditions are better.	Mar 2, 2012 12:19 PM
251	Our kids are competing against students at schools in communities that actually support education. It is time for administrators to grow some balls and spend time convincing the public that quality education attracts people to move here and that large classes and crumbling infrastructure drive them away.	Mar 2, 2012 12:16 PM
252	Focus on critical priorities and area where you can save operating costs with energy improvements.	Mar 2, 2012 11:58 AM
253	They are needed	Mar 2, 2012 11:51 AM
254	Only the necessary capital projects should be done at this time.	Mar 2, 2012 11:48 AM
255	repairs are important and an essential thing BUT we have to make sure that these repairs are done in a cost efficient way	Mar 2, 2012 11:46 AM
256	Let's not be penny wise and pound foolish. Take care of building while the problems are still manageable.	Mar 2, 2012 11:38 AM
257	It would be nice to keep up with regular maintenance so maybe the repair projects would not be so large.	Mar 2, 2012 11:34 AM
258	review them wisely	Mar 2, 2012 10:16 AM
259	Please communicate with the public	Mar 2, 2012 9:58 AM
260	Wish I was more informed.	Mar 2, 2012 8:45 AM
261	When possible, preservation of existing buildings is key without total rebuilding and reconstruction.	Mar 2, 2012 8:02 AM
262	no	Mar 2, 2012 7:50 AM
263	The public usually needs LOTS of explanations - we need to justify EVERY project and help the tax payers to understand the short and long range impact!	Mar 2, 2012 6:49 AM
264	I think that the closing of Meagher school is not fair to the community and/or the students!	Mar 2, 2012 5:58 AM
265	In a time when finances are tight and the student populations is shrinking, any building project should not be massively constructed based on old student population numbers.	Mar 2, 2012 5:57 AM
266	Beware, especially since we have extra buildings.	Mar 2, 2012 5:09 AM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

267	I am a student at KHS and i am not quite sure what capital projects the district has done, also not sure of what one is.	Mar 1, 2012 7:12 PM
268	plan well; count the cost before starting, then finish what is started	Mar 1, 2012 7:01 PM
269	Building improvements are needed. There is an astronomical cost, particularly with the high school, but the longer we wait, the more it will cost. The community does not want to hear this, but we need to think long term and capital projects are needed.	Mar 1, 2012 7:00 PM
270	no	Mar 1, 2012 6:42 PM
271	If the buildings are unsanitary, and/or unhealthy, education will be difficult or nearly impossible. Capital improvements that will lower utility costs are cost effective and environmentally necessary.	Mar 1, 2012 6:37 PM
272	i dont know enough about them	Mar 1, 2012 6:00 PM
273	No	Mar 1, 2012 5:45 PM
274	They need to be kept at a minimum right now. Research needs to be done on the least expensive way to get what is needed whether it be repair or start over with something different. We need some creativity here just as teachers are being told to be creative and do without or find ways, so must the community to keep our schools being the best they can be.	Mar 1, 2012 4:07 PM
275	Now is the time	Mar 1, 2012 4:00 PM
276	Don't just focus on the High School and don't invest anymore money in the pool.	Mar 1, 2012 3:37 PM
277	If repairs are a threat to student safety then there should be no question as to whether they should be completed. Other non-priority projects could be put on the back burner due to the economy, however they could also provide much needed work if they jobs are sourced locally.	Mar 1, 2012 3:31 PM
278	We need to move forward on repairs rather than just discussing the need for them. I feel our new superintendent is decisive and progressive and I look forward to seeing improvements in all areas.	Mar 1, 2012 3:15 PM
279	No, there is not.	Mar 1, 2012 3:13 PM
280	I feel that the school board and past administrations has been too focused on padding pockets than providing safe and functioning buildings for our children. The repairs have gone to such an excessive point that the cost to repair are far more than they would be if the problems were addressed when they arose.	Mar 1, 2012 2:17 PM
281	The high school should have been repaired or replaced years ago	Mar 1, 2012 1:46 PM
282	Schools need to be functional, efficient and clean.	Mar 1, 2012 12:41 PM
283	there are are schools without playgrounds and in disrepair. You should make your priorities clearer.	Mar 1, 2012 12:11 PM

Q4. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your thoughts on school capital projects?

284	No	Mar 1, 2012 11:44 AM
285	Essential projects worth doing, however the timing is not right at this time.	Mar 1, 2012 11:43 AM
286	I would like the District to pursue Public Private Partnerships.	Mar 1, 2012 10:46 AM
287	They are desperately needed!	Mar 1, 2012 9:55 AM
288	As much as the district needs to be good a steward of its properties, the $92 million proposal is better suited for an ideal economic climate when the community is growing, not shrinking. The district should focus on essential infrastructure upgrades.	Mar 1, 2012 9:50 AM
289	As long as projects are covered by some other source, only the essentials should be done at this time	Mar 1, 2012 9:33 AM

13	Unavailability at time of vote some years	Mar 14, 2012 7:44 AM
14	As someone not from this area, I don't know much about the history and issues related to education in Kingston. I didn't want to vote unless I felt I knew enough about the people and issues we were voting on. I have voted at some elections (not all) since my son because part of the Kingston CSD.	Mar 14, 2012 7:40 AM
15	I havent lived in the district with a child in school for 10 years	Mar 14, 2012 7:35 AM
16	The music program wasn't in danger	Mar 14, 2012 7:16 AM
17	New to district last year.	Mar 14, 2012 5:31 AM
18	underage	Mar 13, 2012 9:26 PM
19	I turned 18 last year.	Mar 13, 2012 7:20 PM

21	I just turned 18 last year.	Mar 13, 2012 7:14 PM
22	not of age	Mar 13, 2012 7:03 PM
23	Moved here five years ago.	Mar 13, 2012 6:11 PM
24	I am not old enough	Mar 13, 2012 6:10 PM
25	Previously lived in another county. We FLED to Ulster to avoid the rising taxes. Please don't make me regret not leaving NY all together.	Mar 13, 2012 6:01 PM

Q8. If you answered no, please tell us why you have not voted:

26	student	Mar 13, 2012 5:46 PM
27	underage	Mar 13, 2012 5:43 PM
28	I have only been registered to vote for 1 year.	Mar 13, 2012 4:40 PM
29	Too young.	Mar 13, 2012 4:10 PM
30	I'm 20 years old and having only been voting for 2 years.	Mar 13, 2012 4:00 PM
31	don't pay enough attention to the issues and i'm a renter.	Mar 13, 2012 3:54 PM
32	I'm a student, and don't really take the time?	Mar 13, 2012 3:03 PM
33	I'm not old enough	Mar 13, 2012 2:57 PM
34	not 18	Mar 13, 2012 2:15 PM
35	no matter how the vote goes, it's all politics and the kids end up suffering the consequences and the community shoulders the expense	Mar 13, 2012 2:05 PM
36	Because I am a 13 year old.	Mar 13, 2012 1:54 PM
37	I live out of district.	Mar 13, 2012 1:20 PM
38	Went away for college	Mar 13, 2012 1:16 PM
39	Because I feel that what ever the board wants the board does	Mar 13, 2012 1:01 PM
40	I only just turned 18.	Mar 13, 2012 12:57 PM
41	Was never previously aware of any district issues, prior to having children of school age.	Mar 13, 2012 12:16 PM
42	It doesn't seem to make any difference. The austerity budget is sometimes worse.	Mar 13, 2012 12:15 PM
43	I am under the voting age.	Mar 13, 2012 11:58 AM
44	too young	Mar 13, 2012 11:51 AM
45	There are many times that I do not vote because I know the voting is flawed. The bulk of the voters are those sent out from the District in order to approve a vote and put certain individuals in Board positions, as well as pass certain things. Without their approval, certain individuals do not have a shot at making any change in our district. It's all about who you know and if you are a yes man to keep the ridiculous farce going within the district. The budget is ridiculous because the graduation rate is alaugable at best, with the bulk of the kids graduating with 5th grade reading levels.	Mar 13, 2012 11:51 AM
46	I've only become interested since my child started school this year.	Mar 13, 2012 10:45 AM

96	I do not live in district... I am an employee	Mar 11, 2012 3:35 PM
97	My home is in another district	Mar 11, 2012 8:59 AM
98	I have not been abreast on the budget. We moved to the area 4 years ago and my daughter has just started at Myer.	Mar 9, 2012 3:28 PM
99	I live in another district but work in Kingston	Mar 9, 2012 10:38 AM
100	Not sure when it is.	Mar 8, 2012 7:33 PM
101	Not old enough, did not feel knowledgeable enough	Mar 8, 2012 7:24 PM
102	I'm to young.	Mar 8, 2012 4:03 PM
103	I'm to young to vote.	Mar 8, 2012 3:38 PM
104	Recently moved.	Mar 8, 2012 3:31 PM
105	I live in a different district	Mar 8, 2012 10:25 AM
106	It never seemed to make a difference whether I voted or not these projects and other students needs never get accomplished anyway.	Mar 8, 2012 7:15 AM
107	Not a kingston resident	Mar 8, 2012 5:07 AM
108	I am a student, therefor I do not get any say whatsoever in the people who decide my curriculum, my environmental rules, my extracurricular options, nor how the money of the state's population is spent on my education, building, etc. If I had the option to actually effect my own educational system, I absolutely would.	Mar 7, 2012 3:49 PM
109	As a district employee, I feel voting for whether or not the tax payers are going to fund my job and voting for who my policy makers are going to be is a conflict of interest.	Mar 7, 2012 12:23 PM
110	we did not live in the district 10 years ago.	Mar 7, 2012 4:49 AM
111	Not fully informed on the issues, the polling locations, etc.	Mar 6, 2012 7:38 PM
112	because we sent our children to private school	Mar 5, 2012 6:24 PM
113	I do not live within the district	Mar 5, 2012 1:13 PM
114	Because it is all about politics and I really don't like it. Been there done it and that is why I'm not married.	Mar 5, 2012 10:03 AM
115	have only lived in district for the past 2 years since 10 years ago	Mar 5, 2012 9:15 AM
116	I don't vote.	Mar 5, 2012 8:13 AM
117	I did not live in the Kingston district until 5 years ago. I voted in my previous area.	Mar 5, 2012 6:57 AM

Q8. If you answered no, please tell us why you have not voted:

118	I didn't know enough about board members to vote, now I have a good idea after sitting through many board meetings. Budget I always vote for.	Mar 5, 2012 6:36 AM
119	mostly my work schedule made it impossible to get there.	Mar 4, 2012 9:11 PM
120	no real reason--kids are just starting school	Mar 4, 2012 8:11 PM
121	Too difficult to get to the polls.	Mar 4, 2012 5:58 PM
122	Didn't feel it would make a difference.	Mar 4, 2012 8:41 AM
123	honestly i have not been well informed, and am trying to become more aware of all the issues.	Mar 3, 2012 7:29 PM
124	too young	Mar 3, 2012 7:29 PM
125	It wasn't as easy as this to vote.	Mar 3, 2012 9:31 AM
126	I did not have a child in school and I was not focused on it. I realize however at this time exactly how much the vote matters not just for the children and quality education but also for our neighborhoods and properties we own. If schools close and fall into disrepair in our community it effects everone living in the area and surrounding areas for this matter. Most of us have most of our investments in our homes. The community is a huge part of that value.	Mar 3, 2012 6:47 AM
127	Voting is not in my local school. Inconvenient location.	Mar 3, 2012 5:27 AM
128	just entering the system	Mar 2, 2012 9:20 PM
129	not my thing	Mar 2, 2012 7:58 PM
130	Lack of information.	Mar 2, 2012 5:11 PM
131	school budget wins every time so what's the point	Mar 2, 2012 4:24 PM
132	I have been living out of the area.	Mar 2, 2012 4:23 PM
133	inconvenient	Mar 2, 2012 3:16 PM
134	moved here in 2006	Mar 2, 2012 3:11 PM
135	choose not to vote	Mar 2, 2012 2:46 PM
136	Dont feel my voite is worth it. Bruderhof doesn't pay taxes and should have no say in anything voting which makes me feel that my vote is useless.	Mar 2, 2012 2:12 PM
137	i never found the place of voting handy to get to.,	Mar 2, 2012 1:16 PM
138	I am a single mom, recently graduated college. I did not have the time.	Mar 2, 2012 12:45 PM
139	NA	Mar 2, 2012 12:30 PM
140	Sadly, I didn't think it would make a difference.	Mar 2, 2012 12:26 PM

Q8. If you answered no, please tell us why you have not voted:

141	I usually come home from work and have dinner and then don't go back out. But I really should and am going to try harder to do so.	Mar 2, 2012 12:19 PM
142	Simply because I don't want to be an uninformed voter.	Mar 2, 2012 12:07 PM

155	Does it really matter? You will always find a way to increase salaries, preserve benefits, and increase our taxes. From what I have been through so far in our school system, I don't feel the teachers are the most effective for the salaries and benefits they receive. Maybe a survey for parents to rate the teachers are in order? Believe it or not, there are many parents in the district that actually care what goes on at school and push their children to excel.	Mar 1, 2012 10:31 AM
156	In the next question, it's really a combination of all of those factors.	Mar 1, 2012 9:50 AM

54	going to meetings and/or discussing meetings with those who attended	Mar 11, 2012 5:52 PM
55	fellow parents and school employees. I also read the papers, but take anything in the Freeman with a huge grain of salt. I realize it is perhaps the most important source for anti-school individuals who vote down budgets...	Mar 10, 2012 11:44 AM
56	I also attend the BOE meetings.	Mar 10, 2012 6:48 AM
57	I feel that Reading Recovery is an essential program to preserve in our district. As a parent of a first grader and upcoming first grader I would like to know that there are programs like this in place should my child or any child need them.	Mar 9, 2012 12:56 PM
58	school board meetings	Mar 8, 2012 4:01 AM
59	Recently I have noticed that the information on the KHS website has been updated, the website is where I should be able to get all of my info for school, including forms (i.e. interval forms for sports, etc.)	Mar 8, 2012 3:24 AM

62	Would like to use the website, but it does not contain everything.	Mar 6, 2012 6:26 PM
63	Also district website but won't let me check more than 1	Mar 6, 2012 1:53 PM
64	I had two children that just finished high school with in the past two years and we must do the best we can for the kids.	Mar 6, 2012 12:41 PM
65	We get almost no communication from school or teachers. This is a huge problem. Teachers should have websites or more contact with parents. There should be parent teacher conferences at night once or twice a year.	Mar 6, 2012 9:33 AM
66	It's really the "only" source...I wish there was a more "reliable" way to learn about what is happening in the district. Post more "news" worthy information on the website!	Mar 6, 2012 8:57 AM
67	attending school board meetings	Mar 5, 2012 7:10 PM
68	all of the above	Mar 5, 2012 7:18 AM
69	I also read about our district in The Daily Freeman	Mar 5, 2012 7:11 AM
70	The new District Website is much improved! Thank you for making the information more accessible.	Mar 5, 2012 6:42 AM

Q10. What is your best source of school related news?

71	PTA	Mar 5, 2012 6:36 AM
72	My new source since the change to the site. Awesome!	Mar 5, 2012 6:06 AM
73	Really our PTA communications. I look forward to the district's new communication strategy.	Mar 5, 2012 4:53 AM
74	the freeman and from people who attend there.	Mar 4, 2012 9:11 PM
75	board meetings	Mar 4, 2012 9:00 PM
76	None.Communication is TERRIBLE..on all levels	Mar 4, 2012 6:18 PM

83	The website as well	Mar 3, 2012 6:33 AM
84	pta meetings	Mar 3, 2012 6:26 AM
85	Attending BOE meetings and DWPC, as well as all of the above.	Mar 3, 2012 5:53 AM
86	I read I watch the news I speak to other community members	Mar 2, 2012 5:54 PM
87	Newsletter in the mail, Freeman.	Mar 2, 2012 5:46 PM
88	The district website is becoming more informative though, and I think will help greatly in getting the necessary info out to the public.	Mar 2, 2012 5:11 PM
89	a combination of the above, the new newsletter is good!	Mar 2, 2012 2:39 PM
90	I love the new email system and would say that is the best source if it wasnt brand new. Its much better than the freeman.	Mar 2, 2012 2:05 PM
91	all of the above	Mar 2, 2012 1:31 PM
92	Hopefully the best source of news will now be the district website, but in the past, it was the Freeman, because that was really the only source, unfortunately.	Mar 2, 2012 1:30 PM
93	You can improve facilities, technology and class offerings IF you are willing to cut personnel expenses. There is no shortage of qualified teachers who will work for less and be thankful to do so. The Teacher's Union (not the individual teachers) is killing our education system:/ HELP	Mar 2, 2012 1:19 PM
94	All the above - i then make my own judgements	Mar 2, 2012 1:11 PM

Q10. What is your best source of school related news?

95	my student	Mar 2, 2012 12:57 PM
96	Know people working in district	Mar 2, 2012 12:30 PM
97	I've never seen a letter of newsletter...wish I had!	Mar 2, 2012 12:26 PM
98	multiple sources	Mar 2, 2012 12:22 PM
99	and newsletters from my student's school	Mar 2, 2012 12:20 PM
100	Married to a teacher in the district	Mar 2, 2012 12:06 PM
101	I explore all avenues available	Mar 2, 2012 9:58 AM
102	But the Freeman is such a NEGATIVE source. I also use the district website.	Mar 2, 2012 6:49 AM
103	Should be multi-choice question. Also from info sent from school.	Mar 2, 2012 4:52 AM
104	khs tv	Mar 1, 2012 6:00 PM
105	all of the above	Mar 1, 2012 12:41 PM
106	your communication is horrible.	Mar 1, 2012 11:44 AM
107	Although I believe the coverage is bias, I read the Daily Freeman. After reading a story, I discuss the stories with friends and colleagues and check the district news sources for more accurate information.	Mar 1, 2012 10:09 AM
108	work	Mar 1, 2012 9:55 AM
