higher standards of excellence.*

ITI-BSE

The Intensive Teacher Institute for Bilingual Special Education (ITI-BSE), is a NYSED funded program that provides tuition assistance to obtain a Bilingual Extension for:

- Special Education Teachers
- Teachers of Speech and Language Disabilities
- Pupil Personnel

We also, provide tuition assistance to obtain a TESOL Certification for:

- Special Education Teachers

Programs

Graduate Level:

For certified special education teachers, TSSLD, and PPS who are currently working in that certification area in a NYS public school.

Undergraduate Level:

For juniors and seniors who are matriculated in a bilingual special education teacher or bilingual TSSLD program at an approved IHE.

Paraprofessional Level:

For current bilingual special education teacher assistants who have completed 60 undergraduate credits and are interested in obtaining their bilingual special education teacher certification.

See our website for specific requirements for each program or contact the ITI-BSE office.

Application Process

Step 1: Fill out the application

Located on our website or email us directly for one.

Step 2: Decide on your IHE

Choose one of the approved ITI-BSE Institutions of Higher Education (College/ University). Contact the advisor to see if there are any specific IHE requirements that are needed and confirm the tuition amount.

Step 3: Gather all required paperwork

Application must be filled out completely. Nomination form must be filled out and signed by your Building Principal (for NYCDOE only) or Superintendent

Step 4: Mail or email the application to the ITI-BSE program
